IN A FAMILIAR COUNTRY

President Received Hearty Greetings From Old Friends in North Dakota.

INDIANS PRESENT PIPE OF PEACE

Mr. Roosevelt Given a Truly Western Reception at Medora, Where He Owned a Ranch Years Ago Indians Wish Him a Second Term.

Mandan, N. D., April 8.—President Roosevelt has been traveling through familiar country and has received hearty greetings wherever his train stopped. At many places he recognized old friends, and from his conversation it is evident that this has been one of the most enjoyable days of his trip. At Fargo, Jamestown and Bismarck he made stops of from half an hour to an hour and discussed the conditions in the Philippines, the tariff and the general prosperity of the country. Stops also were made at Casselton, Tower, Valley City, the home of Governor White; Dawson, Dickin and Medora.

The most interesting ceremony of the day occurred at Medora, where the president at one time owned a ranch and which was his postoffice address 16 years ago, when he was sheriff of Billings county. Medora is a small place, but the ranchmen from the surrounding country had come into town, and they gave the president a truly western reception. Joe Ferris, the president's old foreman, and his brother, S. M. Ferris, met the president at Bismarck and rode with him to Medora.

Standing in the private office of Governor White at Bismarck, President Roosevelt received the assurance of the friendship and support of the great Sioux Indian tribe and similar assurances from the chiefs of the Mandans and Grosventres. Twenty of the most distinguished chieftains of the tribes had come from their agencies to see the "great father," and to assure him of their support and good will. There were many famous Indians in the assemblage. John Grass, the orator and chief justice of the Sioux, made the presentation of the tribe's good will in a translation of the address, which had been agreed upon in council of the chiefs. At the same time Grass presented the president a peace pipe of beautifully carved pipestone, in token of the good will and friendship of the Indians.

"We have been treated well by the good 'great father,'" said Grass, "and we hope he will again be 'great father' when his time is over."

Water, chief of the Mandan Indians, also presented written assurances of the good will of his people. "Tell him," said President Roosevelt through the interpreter, "that I am glad to see him. The Mandan Indians have always done well." Then the wrinkled old chieftains grasped the president's hand and solemnly grunted their approval.

Some of them had fought against Custer. The president had traded with ter. The president had traded with two of these Indians 18 or 20 years ago, and he instantly recognized them. The chiefs presented an address and a pipe of peace to the president, who had a few words of greeting and thanks for each man.

Talks of the Philippines.

In his address at Fargo, President Roosevelt spoke at length on the Philippines, saying in part:

"It is a good thing to look back upon what has been said and compare it with the record of what has actually been done.

"The first duty was the restoration of order; and to this end the use of the army of the United States—an army composed of regulars and volunteers alike—was necessary. To put down the insurrection and restore peace to the islands was a duty not only to ourselves but to the islanders also. We could not have abandoned the conflict without shirking this duty, without proving ourselves recreants to the memory of our forefathers. Moreover, if we had abandoned it we would have inflicted upon the Filipinos the most cruel wrong and would have doomed them to a bloody jumble of anarchy and tyranny.

"The circumstances of the war made it one of peculiar difficulty, and our soldiers were exposed to peculiar wrongs from their foes. They fought in dense tropical jungles against enemies who were very treacherous and very cruel, not only toward our own men, but toward the great numbers of friendly natives, the most peaceable and most civilized among whom eagerly welcomed our rule. Under such circumstances, among a hundred thousand hot-blooded and powerful young men serving in small detachments on the other side of the globe, it was impossible that occasional instances of wrongdoing should not occur. The fact that they occurred in retaliation for wellnigh intolerable provocation cannot for one moment be admitted in the way of excuse or justification. All good Americans regret and deplore them, and the war department has taken every step in its power to punish the offenders and to prevent or minimize the chance of repetition of the offence. But these offences were the exception and not the rule. When, by last July, the last vestige of organized insurrection had disappeared, peace and amnesty were proclaimed.

"As rapidly as military rule was extended over the islands by the defeat of the insurgents, just so rapidly was it replaced by the civil government. In Governor Taft and his associates we sent to the Filipinos as upright, as conscientious and as able a group of administrators as ever any country has been blessed with having. The administration is incorruptibly honest; justice is as jealously safeguarded as here at home.

"Moreover, the last Congress enacted some admirable legislation affecting the army, passing first of all the militia bill and then the bill to create a general staff. The militia bill represents the realization of a reform which had been championed ineffectively by Washington, and had been fruitlessly agitated ever since. At last we have taken from the statute books the obsolete militia law of the Revolutionary days and have provided for efficient aid to the national guard of the states. The general staff law is of immense importance and benefit to the regular army. Under the law just enacted by Congress the system will be changed immensely for the better, and every patriotic American ought to rejoice; for when we come to the army and the navy we deal with the honor and interests of all our people; and when such is the case party lines are as nothing and we all stand only by pride in and love for our common country."

BANQUET MONDAY EVENING.

Given by the Young American Republican Club.

On Monday evening The Young American Republican Club of the West ward who are located in the Meek building on High street gave another of their up-to-date banquets.

This Club was organized in January with a membership of twenty and since then has grown until they have fifty good, reliable Republicans added to the roll. Previous to the banquet on Monday evening, a business meeting was held at which the following gentlemen were elected officers, President, Edward Haupt; Vice President, William Hamilton; Secretary, Harry Smith; Assistant Secretary, Alfred Derr; Treasurer Clarence Rine; Auditor Harry Irvin. The Club has under consideration the question of enlarging the organization and extending a membership to all good Republicans in Bellefonte. In fact, a number of urgent requests for membership have been sent into the Club from Republicans, in the other two wards. The question has not been definitely settled, but will be acted upon at their next meeting.

Charles Harrison who is noted for the excellent style in which he serves banquets, had this one in charge, and with his able assistants made all happy by filling them full of good things which always pleases the innerman. During the course of the evening short and pithy speeches were made by some of the members, and their guests. The hours passed rapidly around until the time came to go home, which they did with the feeling that it was good for them to be there. Some of the guests present were, R. S. Brouse, Joe Gingher, R. T. Bayard, Merrell Knapp, and George Waite.

A Young Man Gone Wrong.

L. B. Detwiler is a young man, and until recently was a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad. He boarded with Mrs. Maggie Mansfield in Altoona, and jumped his board bill of $17. He was quite intimate with another railroader named John M. Smith. At Pitcairn on February 12 he entered the pay car of the Pennsylvania road and signing the name of Smith to the pay roll drew his friend's pay amounting to $77.15.

On the following day at Derry he entered the car again and drew his own pay of $54. He was arrested at Rockhill Furnace, Huntingdon county, Wednesday night and taken to Altoona and locked up. He was given a hearing Friday before Alderman Snyder involving the board bill.

The young man's father appeared, paid the bill and costs, and in the railroad money case he refunded the amount, paid the costs and thus secured the defendant's release.

Detwiler is 28 years old and comes from a good family, his uncle being one of the associate judges of Huntingdon county.

STEEL TRUST'S REPORT

Net Earnings of All Properties Last Year Was $133,308,764.

$560,510,479 BUSINESS DONE

After Paying Fixed Charges and Dividends Over $34,000,000 Was Added to Surplus—Maintenance of Properties Cost $29,157,011.

New York, April 8.—The first annual report to the stockholders of the United States Steel Corporation for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1902, has been issued. The income account for the year shows total net earnings of all properties, after deducting expenditures for ordinary repairs and maintenance, also interest on bonds for the subsidiary companies, of $133,308,764; less sinking funds on bonds of subsidiary companies, $624,064; depreciation and extinguishment funds, $4,834,710; extraordinary replacement funds, $9,315,615; special funds for depreciation and improvements, $10,000,000; total, $24,774,389; balance of net earnings for the year, $108,534,374; interest on United States Steel Corporation bonds for the year, $15,187,850; sinking fund on United States Steel Corporation bonds for the year, $3,040,000; total, $18,227,850; balance, $90,306,524; dividends seven per cent. preferred stock, $35,720,177; common four per cent., $20,332,690; total, $56,052,867, leaving undivided profits or surplus for the year, $34,253,557. Previous surplus, $43,620,940; total surplus December 31, 1902, $77,874,597, which include the capital surplus of $25,000,000 provided at date of organization.

The physical condition of the properties has been fully maintained during the year, the cost of which has been charged to current expenses, and the amount expended by all properties for maintenance, renewals and extraordinary replacements aggregated $29,157,011. Provisional charges were made monthly to operations for sinking fund and to establish funds for depreciation, and for reserves for extraordinary replacements.

The volume of business done by all companies during the year, including sales between the companies and the gross receipts of transportation and miscellaneous properties, aggregated $560,510,479.

Total capital stock of the corporation issued and outstanding on December 31 was $508,302,500 common stock and $510,281,100 preferred stock. The bonded and mortgaged debt of the United States Steel Corporation and subsidiary companies in the hands of the public at the beginning of the year was $366,097,698. Issues made during the year by several companies, $2,370,338; total, $368,468,036. Total bonds and mortgages paid and cancelled during the year, $1,697,577; bonds purchasd by trustees of sinking funds for investment, $3,115,000. Leaving the bonded, debenture and mortgaged debt December 31, 1902, $363,655,459, a net decrease during the year of $2,442,239.

Purchase money obligations and bills payable paid off between April 1, 1901, and December 31, 1901, amounted to $11,047,971; paid off during 1902, $13,652,368, a total reduction of $24,700,339.

The report for the first quarter of this year shows net earnings of $24,656,136, a decrease over the first quarter of last year of $1,623,463.

Unfilled orders on the books for manufactured products on April 1 were 5,410,719 tons. The preferred dividend is payable May 15, the common June 20.

Attempted Burglary at the Hastings Mansion.

On Monday night some person or persons effected an entrance into the residence of the late D. H. Hastings, but were discovered in time to prevent them from committing any depredation and escaped before help arrived.

We have not learned the full particulars of the attempted burglary, but there is no doubt the attempt was made.

About eleven o'clock the Governess thought she saw some one leave the billiard room on the third flour, at first she imagined it one of the domestics, but afterwards discovered that such was not the case.

Being alarmed, she went to the telephone and called the Brockerhoff House, asking for a police officer, it so happened that officer Jodon was in the Hotel at the time, and he immediately started for the Hastings house, taking with him Robt. F. Hunter, Mr. Ray. Hard P. Harris and M. A. Jackson, these gentlemen made a thorough search of the premises but could find no one. As the ladies of the household were very much frightened Mr. Jackson volunteered to remain all night, and his offer was gratefully accepted.

In the morning the window of the Billiard room was found open, and whoever was in the house made their exit by that way.

There is no doubt, it was an attempt to rob the house although nothing was taken, and it is evident there is some one in the community who needs looking after.

High School Declamatory Contest.

The Junior class of the Bellefonte High School held their annual preliminary declamatory contest Monday afternoon at the Brick School house.

A large number of visitors and friends of the contestants were present, all of whom enjoyed the exercises, which were of a pleasing character and spoke well for the care and attention which is given to this particular and highly important branch of education.

The handsome room was decorated with the school colors Red and White, and the class colors, Purple and Yellow, were tastily draped over and around the platform.

The program was varied by several songs by the school which were beautifully rendered.

Fifteen young ladies and gentlemen took part in the contest and every one performed their part with ease and grace, none being disconcerted nor embarrassed in any way, by the large audience before whom they were speaking. The following are the names of those participating, with the subject of their orations:

Bessie Brouse, "The Witch's Daughter."
Mabel Garbrick, "A Legend of Bregenz."
Laura Faxon, "Healing of the Daughter of Jairus."
Jesse Derstine, "The Fight off Santiago."
Helen Ceader, "The Painter of Seville."
Gussie Smith, "A White Lily."
Harry Wian, "The Tyrant Praetor of Verres Denounced."
Lillian Walker, "Bernardo Del Carpio."
Florence Lowry, "Told by the Hospital Nurse."
Alpha Hafer, "A Legend of Arabia."
Edith Graham, "A Denominational Garden."
Bernice Shuey, "Naubaught the Deacon."
Walter Rankin, "The Blue and the Gray."
Florence Tanner, "The Execution of Montrose."
Charles Donachy, "Horace Greeley."

Dr. George B. Klump and the writer, were selected as Judges whose duty it was to select ten from the fifteen contestants, who in their judgment, were the more entitled to deliver orations at the coming oratorical contest in June.

It was a difficult task to determine which were the best, for all were so meritorious, that in this case, "comparison was odious," as but ten could be selected, the judges had to strike five from the list, which after some close figuring, and considerable discussion, was done, but at the same time they felt as if the whole class had come up to a high standard of excellence.

In a graceful manner Dr. Klump announced the names of the successful ones, as follows—Bessie Brouse, Laura Faxon, Helen Ceader, Gussie Smith, Harry Wian, Lillian Walker, Florence Lowry, Edith Graham, Bernice Shuey, Charles Donachy, and in a few facetious remarks which put all in a good humor, expressed regret that any of the class should be precluded from appearing on the stage at the Oratorical Contest.

The Doctor has always manifested great concern in the education of our youth, and made considerable sacrifice to be present on this occasion, and he afterwards expressed to the writer, his gratification at the manner in which the High School is conducted, and of the discipline which is so apparent.

The corps of teachers which is comprised of John D. Meyer Principle, assisted by Miss Ella Levy and Miss Bessie M. Craighead are indefatigable in their labors to bring Bellefonte High School up to the front rank of similar institutions in our Commonwealth and they are succeeding admirably in their efforts.

It was with satisfaction we observed among the audience G. W. Rees, Prest., of the School Board and A. C. Mingle one of the directors who could not but be more than satisfied with the manner in which the scholars performed their parts.

Cent A Word—Wireless.

Commercial wireless telegraph at a rate of one cent a word from Chicago to all the principal cities in the United States will be a fact within ninety days if the present plans of the American De Forest Wireless Telegraph Company are carried out. A statement to this effect was given out Wednesday at the Chicago office of the company by Abraham White, president of the corporation, and Dr. Lee De Forest, the inventor.

"We have purchased a tract of ground from the Northwestern University in North Evanston," said Mr. White. "There we will erect a station 210 feet high. Our engineers are expected to arrive tomorrow and work will be begun at once. It will take about forty days to erect the station. We expect to have it in operation and to be sending messages to Detroit, Cleveland, Buffalo and places on the Atlantic coast inside of sixty days."

WORK ON PANAMA CANAL

United States to Pay Company For Continuing Operations.

NOW COSTS $5,000 A DAY

When Government Formally Enters Upon Project 30,000 Men Will Be Employed—May Import Chinese and Japanese For the Purpose.

Washington, April 8.—Mr. Cromwell, counsel for the Panama Canal Company, and Admiral Walker called at the state department to talk to Secretary Hay about the work of the sub-committee which is to visit the isthmus to appraise the value of the work the company is now doing on the canal. It was reported to the secretary that the company now employs 160 engineers, about 45 medical officers and about 1,500 laborers and foremen on the canal. These are nearly all at work in the Culebra cut. Five thousand dollars a day is a modest estimate of the money which the United States will be expected to pay the canal company for continuing this work, and it is now suggested that the payments may date back to the last report of the canal commission.

Admiral Walker's estimate of the number of men to be employed on the Panama Canal when the United States formally shall have entered upon the project is 30,000. For all practical purposes, this government now is engaged in the construction of the canal. Under the agreement signed on March 2 by Secretary Hay and Mr. Cromwell, the American representative of the new Panama Canal Company, the work of construction was to be continued by the canal company until the exchange of ratifications of the canal treaty, with the understanding that the United States should pay for such construction work.

One of the purposes of the visit to the isthmus soon to be made by a sub-committee of the present canal commission is to study the labor question as it relates to the construction of the waterway, with a view of ascertaining a source from which an additional labor supply may be obtained. The local labor supply is insufficient to meet the demand. It is probable, therefore, that laborers will be drawn by the thousand from the Southern states and the islands of the West Indies. As the labor supply is controlled largely by companies organized for the purpose, it is quite likely that many Chinese and Japanese laborers will be imported for work on the canal. They are excellent workmen and are peculiarly fitted by nature for work of that kind and in that climate.

The Close of Dr. Shriner's Pastorate.

The Methodist Episcopal church was crowded Sunday at both morning and evening services. In the morning Dr. Wilford P. Shriner preached his farewell sermon as pastor of the church. His remarks were more in the shape of a talk than a sermon and he gave the congregation may kind words of advice for their future guidance. He said he would always feel an interest in this church and closed by speaking very feelingly of the many acts of kindness shown to him and his family during his pastorate here.

In the evening Rev. Jay R. Woodcock, a former Bellefonte boy, occupied the pulpit and preached a most interesting and scholarly sermon. His text was from the Gospel according to St. Paul "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." The young pastor was listened to attentively and with profit. We predict for him a bright future.

Miss Maude Greib, the organist, prepared a most excellent musical program which was rendered at the morning and evening services. In the evening in addition to the other features, Mr. Bower, a student at State College, rendered a cornet solo, of unusual merit, and Mr. J. S. D. Eisenhower sang a very excellent solo. The latter is a drug clerk at Krumrine's drug store and is a native of Carlisle to which place Dr. Shriner goes from here.

The Methodist Episcopal church at Carlisle of which Dr. Shriner is to assume the pastorate next Sunday, is the official church of Dickinson College. The church has six hundred members made up of citizens of the town and in addition three hundred students from the College attend the church every Sunday in a body. The many friends of Dr. Shriner and family will wish them success and Godspeed in their new field of labor.

—Sometime on Sunday night burglars entered the store of George Boak at Pine Glenn and attempted to blow open the safe. They failed however to do so merely damaging the door. They carried off a lot of watches, jewelery etc., and made good their escape. There is no clue to the robbers.

BATTLE IN SAN DOMINGO

Government Troops Drive Rebels Back Into Pajarito.

HEAVY LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES

Another Engagement Is Imminent, As Large Government Forces Are Marching On the Town—Marines Landed to Protect U. S. Consulate.

Santo Domingo City, April 6.—The government troops outside the city attacked the insurgents in the suburb of Pajarito. The most severe engagement since the rebellion broke out ensued, and the insurgents were driven back to this city. The artillery from the fort covered the insurgent's retreat. The rebels are disposed to fight to the last, and it is supposed that if they are compelled to abandon the city they will embark on the gunboat Independencia, which is in their power, and go to the northern part of the island and join the rebels there.

The United States cruiser Atlanta has landed 50 marines to protect the American consulate.

No second engagement has taken place, but large government forces are now marching on the town, and an attack is momentarily expected. The rebels are making great preparations for resistance. In the engagement at Pajarito the contending forces used firearms and cutlasses. The losses on both sides are heavy. Several persons were killed inside the city by stray shots. The government gunboat Presidente bombarded the town, and one shell fell inside the yard of the German consulate, but did not explode. The surgeon of the Atlanta assisted in attending to the wounded in the Pajarito fight. Many of the wounded died for went of timely assistance.

The members of the consular and diplomatic corps here met and appointed a commission to notify both sides that they must observe the rules of war, and to demand 24 hours' notice before any attack is made on the town, in order that the foreign residents may go to a place of safety.

All places of business are closed, and the situation is extremely critical.

Government Troops Repulsed.

Washington, April 6.—A report to the navy department from Commander Turner, of the cruiser Atlanta at Santo Domingo City shows another repulse to the government troops, who made an attempt to take the city from the revolutionists, and that Commander Turner was again compelled to land marines to protect the United States consulate. Commander Turner's dispatch is as follows:

"Santo Domingo, via Hayti, April 5.—Government forces attacked city; were repulsed. Report indicates Vasquez (the president) approaching with strong force. Government gunboat fired three shots, without injury. City fortified; apparently determined to resist. Landed marines to protect the consulate."

MOTORMAN SHOT

Moving Car Through Parade Caused Riot In Chicago.

Chicago, April 6.—Because he tried to shove his car through a parade that was blocking traffic in Halstead street, Motorman Soran was shot and seriously injured by one of the marchers. Nearly 1,000 Italians, who were in the parade, broke ranks as soon as the disturbance began and a riot followed, in which switching irons, bricks and other missiles were used. In response to the riot call a score of policemen were on the scene in a few minutes, but before quiet could be restored several persons were severely cut and bruised. Two of the Italians, who, it is supposed, did the shooting, were arrested.

Burglar Riddled With Bullets.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 6.—A special from Penn Yan says: The series of burglaries which has been stirring the country around Himrods for the past few weeks was cleared up in a tragic manner. The night operator at Himrods thought he heard an explosion in the store of Fleck & Forhees. He gave an alarm and a crowd of villagers quickly surrounded the place. A man's form was seen in the store, and he was commanded to surrender. For reply he boldly opened the door, and, drawing a revolver, fired point blank at the crowd. The bullet failed to reach its mark, and before he could fire again his body was riddled with bullets and shot. He fell unconscious and died soon after. The man was a stranger here.

A Million Dollar Failure.

Akron, O., April 6.—A statement has been sent out to the creditors of the Aultman, Miller Company, which went into the hands of H. P. McIntosh, of Cleveland, and George W. Crouse, of Akron, as receivers, showing that the assets of the company, as fixed by a New York audit company December 31, are $1,751,650. This is $134,000 short of the liabilities as they stood before that time.

A Handsome Residence.

Carpenters, Brick-layers, Plumbers, Painters and Paper Hangers have been engaged for the past three months, in making additions and alterations, to the residence on Linn street formerly the home of J. Dunlap Shugert, deceased, and recently purchased by Dr. DeLaun G. Stewart, preparing it for the future home of his mother and himself.

No expense has been spared in making the improvements, and the house has been transformed into one of the most handsome residences on Linn street.

A modern porch has been built on two sides of the house and an extensive bay window added to the dining room.

The plumbing which is of the latest and most modern invention, was installed by Archie Allison, and we are safe in saying, that there is no handsomer bath room in our town, nor more complete, than this one.

The wood work on the outside is painted white, and the brick walls of the house light gray, producing a fine effect.

It is the inside painting and wall decorations that attract and please, the most critical. With the exception of the dining room and sitting room, which are finished in antique oak, the rest of the painting is in pure white, no less than eight coats being required to perfect the job, and it presents the appearance of the finest enamel that can be imagined. The walls are hung with beautiful and expensive paper of the latest designs, and evince artistic taste on the part of those who did this work. Every room being different, but there is a perfect harmony throughout, and demonstrates the fact, that our home workmen have great skill and perfect taste. Robert Montgomery was the contractor for the inside decorations and cutside painting, and he can feel gratified at the result of his labor.

Those who were employed under him to do the work were George Weaver, Henry Weaver, James Houser and Willis Williams all of Bellefonte.

Wants a Lawyer.

A correspondent at Grampian writes as follows:

"It is the sentiment in this section that we should have a lawyer and I believe we could support one. Mail is served from this office to 2,000 people and the town is very busy and much business is done requiring legal supervision."

Here is a chance for some ambitious young man who has been dreaming of the fortunes that come to the lawyer. When the writer says "I believe we could support one," he probably has not measured his ground, as they are a pretty expensive luxury, but nevertheless convenient to have.

The Wages of Sin is Death.

Sophia Little, a dissolute woman and confirmed opium and cigarette fiend, met a horrible fate Tuesday night at Clearfield. After retiring she decided to smoke a cigarette and the bed clothing caught fire. Stupified by the effects of the drug she had been using, she was unable to help herself and when other members of the family discovered the smoke and entered her room she was so badly burned that it was impossible for her to recover. All her clothing was burned from her body and after a few hours of intense agony, she died. Miss Little had resided there for a number of years and was a well known character about town.

A Profitable Sale.

James I. Thompson's sale of Jersey Stock which took place on Tuesday was largely attended, and the prices brought were so high as to make ones head swim.

23 cows were sold for $1683, or an average of $73.

4 of them brought $405; 5 of them brought $491; 6 of them brought $575; 1 Jersey bull brought $110.

The lesson to be learned from the above is that raising Jersey stock pays better than turnips or corn, and if our farmers would pay more attention to stock raising their bank account, would be in better shape.

Where Paved Streets are Needed.

A stranger in Glen Campbell declares the mud was deeper there than he ever saw it in any place before, and illustrates the situation as follows: A hat seemed to be floating down street and some one procured a fishing pole to get the hat, but just as he was about to pull in the prize a hand came up and a voice from beneath cried, "never mind my hat, I have a good horse under me and expect to get there yet."—Mahaffey Gazette.

Chronic Bronchitis Cured.

"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad that at times I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman, of Montmorenci, Ind. "I tried all remedies available, but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction." C. M. Parrish.

RUNKLE—FINK.

A Bellefonte Boy Weds A Fair Daughter of Mahaffey.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew D. Fink, of Mahaffey, Clearfield county, was the scene of a very pretty social event Thursday at High noon. It was the giving in marriage of their daughter, Edith to Mr. Joseph L. Runkle of this place.

It was a quiet wedding only the immediate friends of the contracting parties being present. The house was very prettily decorated for the occasion and all went, as merry as a marriage bell.

The officiating minister was Rev. G. P. Bell, pastor of the Lutheran church at Mahaffey. The bridal party were accompanied to the altar by Maurice B. Runkle, of Bellefonte, brother of the groom, as best man, and Miss Maude Fink, sister of the bride as bridesmaid. The wedding march was played by Miss Isabel McGee, of McGee's Mills, Pa.

The bride was attired in white silk mull over white silk, and the bridesmaid wore a gown of white silk.

After a reception and wedding feast the bride and groom left on the afternoon train for a wedding tour. They will visit Philadelphia, Atlantic City and Harrisburg.

They expect to be absent about three weeks when they will return to Bellefonte and go to housekeeping in the cosy rooms already prepared by Mr. Runkle for his bride in Crider's Exchange.

The groom is in the plumbing business here and is one of our most enterprising young business men. The bride is a young lady of sterling qualities well fitted to make a pleasant helpmate through life. Many beautiful presents were received by the bride which testifies to her popularity.

Making Money Rapidly.

There are a great many millionaires (in embryo) in Bellefonte. Many of whom a few months ago were struggling against fate and fortune, little dreaming that the year 1903 would see them raised from penury to affluence.

Last November a few of our citizens had faith enough to believe the word brought them, that away out in the southwestern portion of Missouri there were deposits of Zinc and Lead Ore which would bring fortune to any who would invest a small amount in developing the territory.

The Prairie Zinc and Lead Co. was organized and incorporated with a capital of $75,000. Land was purchased at Granby, Mo., mines opened, buildings with the most modern machinery erected, and work pushed forward rapidly, for these men meant business. It was but a short time until they struck ore, and they struck it rich, both of Zinc and Lead. They have worked steadily on, building one of the largest and most improved plants in the great south west.

Now they are on a money making and dividend paying basis and their interests are not purchasable.

Thursday a two per cent dividend was declared and paid out of the earnings, leaving in the treasury ample funds for any ordinary or extraordinary expenses which might arise.

We look for a monthly distribution of the above amount, for the "Prairie" is a regular Bonanza.

The officers of the company are all from Bellefonte, as follows: E. L. Orvis, President; J. C. Meyer, Treasurer; Robert F. Hunter, General Manager, the Directors are Ellis L. Orvis, Robt. F. Hunter, J. C. Meyer, J. M. Laurie and W. Harrison Walker.

For confirmation of the above we would refer to the General Manager who can be found in the handsomely appointed offices of the company, Criders Exchange third floor.

The Appointment Not Satisfactory.

Rev. W. A. Houck, who a few years ago was pastor of the Methodist church of Bellefonte, has been assigned by the recent Conference to Mulberry Street church, Williamsport, which is considered one of the finest appointments in Central Pennsylvania. For some cause the members object to having Mr. Houck as pastor, and threaten to pay him no salary, and wired him to that effect.

We have not learned what the Reverend gentleman proposes to do under the circumstances, but it would certainly be unpleasant to accept a charge with the knowledge that the congregation did not want his services.

It appears they had made an effort to have Rev. Morris Swartz sent to them. This is quite a compliment to Rev. Swartz, and his many friends here are gratified to know how rapidly our former citizen is rising in the ministerial ranks.

DUE NOTICE SERVED.

Due notice is hereby served on the public generally that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only salve on the market that is made from the pure, unadulterated witch hazel. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of piles that would not yield to any other treatment, and this fact has brought out many worthless counterfeits. Those persons who get the genuine DeWitts Witch Hazel Salve are never disappointed, because it cures. Parrish's Drug Store.

A Timely Article on the Spitting Nuisance.

Something, having on the ordinary wearing apparel of a man and having the general appearance of a member of the human race, took occasion to spit upon the large show window of Bussard & Bender's store in Altoona the other day; but if he did do the dirty act he paid pretty dearly for it. Thursday he was arrested, given a hearing before Alderman Ramey, and fined the neat sum of $17 for his filthy fun. It was a rather expensive spit for the piggish fellow, but plenty cheap. The other morning some one on his way along Eleventh avenue of that city between Sixteenth and Thirteenth streets counted more than a dozen windows that were smeared with tobacco juice from the mouths of human pigs. The lesson above recited may have the effect of calling a halt to the unwarranted and filthy conduct. If it does not, the dose should be repeated until the patients are surely cured.

But the window glass besmircher is not the only expectorating nuisance most towns and cities have to tolerate, at least do tolerate. Next to besmearing the show windows of a store comes the bespattering of pavements in front of stores or elsewhere in a town with tobacco mixed saliva, forming pools which ladies must carefully dodge as they walk along the street or have their skirts bedraggled and soiled by the filthy accumulation. It is only a nuisance in milder form for a person to spit on the pavement as he meanders along, unthinkingly of course, but no less offensive and annoying to people who are in the least sensitive to the rude things of life. There are times when people must spit, and ought to spit, for it is injurious to swallow some of the accumulations of the mouth, but there is no reason why the spitter should not walk to the edge of the side-walk and empty his gob on the street, and not smear the pavement with the unsightly, offensive and annoying stuff.

People as a rule who spit on the pavement as they walk along, or happen to be standing in conversation, do it thoughtlessly. But if they will put themselves in training, with themselves as teachers, the habit can soon be overcome. Spit you must, at times, but you do not have to spit in the path of the pedestrian. If in town and out of doors squirt your tobacco juice or other saliva into the street. The pavement is not the place for it.

Up-to-Date Bill-Poster and Distributor.

James C. Derr, the city bill poster and distributor, is a busy man at this season of the year. As a circular distributor and advertising agent he is hard to beat and all his work is done in a thorough satisfactory manner. Among the firms he is working for now are: Green's Nervura, Dr. Miles remedies, the Cremo cigar people, Pettijohn's Breakfast food, Peruna, Dr. Chase remedies. Jim is an old Bellefonte boy and is certainly deserving of the confidence and patronage he is receiving in so large a measure.

He is the only bill poster in town and his work is artistic and up-to-date. We can certainly recommend him to any business firm desiring work of this kind, or in the distributing line. All work will be faithfully and conscientiously done.

Coppers for Church Fund.

The meeting of the fourteen benevolent boards and agencies of the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in the United States, at their meeting, held in the rooms of the Board of Church Extension, in York, evolved a plan to raise a $1,000,000 fund as a twentieth century offering.

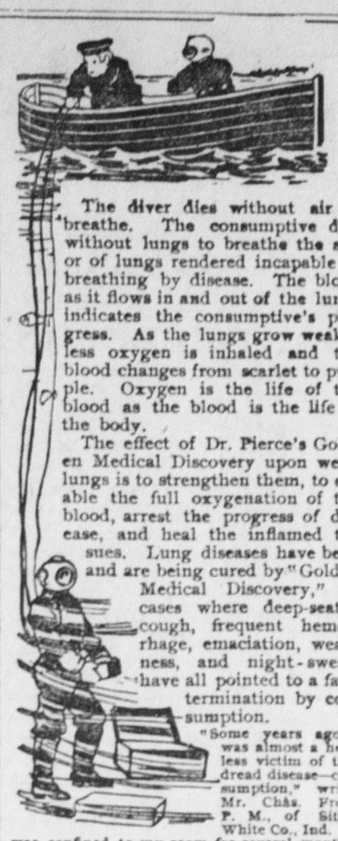
The plan is to solicit everyone of the 250,000 members of the churches in the General Synod to contribute one cent per day for one year. These, with greater contributions, will swell the fund to over $1,000,000, which will be used as a twentieth century offering for all the charitable purposes of the church.

An executive committee was appointed, and the Rev. H. H. Weber, general secretary of the Lutheran Board of Church Extension, was named as its chairman and treasurer.

Death of A Loving Mother.

Mrs. Mitchell Bitner, residing between Beech Creek and Eagleville, died at 2 o'clock Thursday morning. She had been in delicate health for more than a year and Wednesday afternoon suffered a second stroke of paralysis, which rendered her unconscious until she died. Mrs. Bitner was aged about 56 years. Besides her husband, three sons survive, DeLarma and Doran of Bitumen, and Corwin at home. Mrs. Bitner was a true christian woman, a devoted wife and kind mother. Her death makes a sad and painful vacancy in the home. Her kind disposition and exemplary character won for her a large circle of friends who lament her death. The funeral took place at 10,30 o'clock Saturday morning. Services at the house and interment in the Brown graveyard.

—The Grange Encampment, Grange Park, Centre Hall, will open Saturday, September 12. An informal meeting of the executive committee was held in Centre Hall Saturday, at which time the date was fixed.



The diver dies without air to breathe. The consumptive dies without lungs to breathe the air, or of lungs rendered incapable of breathing by disease. The blood as it flows in and out of the lungs indicates the consumptive's progress. As the lungs grow weaker less oxygen is inhaled and the blood changes from scarlet to purple. Oxygen is the life of the blood as the blood is the life of the body.

The effect of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery upon weak lungs is to strengthen them, to enable the full oxygenation of the blood, arrest the progress of disease, and heal the inflamed tissues. Lung diseases have been and are being cured by "Golden Medical Discovery," in cases where deep-seated cough, frequent hemorrhage, emaciation, weakness, and night-sweats have all pointed to a fatal termination by consumption.

"Some years ago I was almost a helpless victim of that dread disease—consumption," writes Mr. Chas. Fross, P. M., of Sitka, White Co., Ind. "I was confined to my room for several months; my friends and neighbors had given up all hope of my recovery, until one day a friend advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and after I had taken the contents of the second bottle I began to improve. After taking six bottles I was, I honestly believe, delivered from the grave and entirely cured. I am now a strong and hearty man."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the clogged system from accumulated impurities.

A Garment for the Gas.

Business was quiet in the shop, and so when the young person in cap and apron entered the tradesman was all smiles and attention.

"What can I do for you, madam?" he queried politely.

"I see," she said with a rich brogue, "that ye are afther sellin' them newfangled things they do be burnin' on the gas."

"Yes, madam, we have a very large assortment of the very best incandescent fittings. You can have the complete set—fittings, chimney and mantle—as low as $2.50.

"Oh," was the reply. "sure it's not the complete set that I'm afther wanting. I've got the brass part and the chimley all right as can be. But the little white shirt's all broken to smithereens; an' it's another wan that I want if you plaze."

"House Warmer."

Mr. and Mrs. John Hartswick of State College gave a "house warmer" at their new home last Thursday evening. The family had just moved into the house the day before and thinking that a dance would be appreciated by their friends acted accordingly.

About forty guests from the nearby community were present to enjoy the festivities. The Boalsburg orchestra kept the music flowing while the jolly crowd swayed to and fro over the floor. About 11 o'clock cake and ice cream was served, after which another hour was spent very pleasantly in dancing. The guests departed at 12 o'clock for their respective homes, wishing to be present at another "House warmer" in the near future.

Bank Examiner.

National Bank Examiner John F. Finney was in town on Friday making the semi annual examination of the First National Bank. For a number of years Mr. Finney was Assistant Treasurer of United States at Philadelphia, and his experience in this important office gave him unusual training for the careful and thorough investigation that the law compells. Of course, he found the First National as sound as the new bank notes that Mr. Humes is so fondof paying out.

South Renovoites April Fooled.

Renovo News: Great excitement was caused in South Renovo Wednesday afternoon when a report became current that a man had attempted suicide by hanging. Crowds of children and a few of the older ones went up the run to ascertain the truth or falsity of the report. The tree tops were closely scanned. It did not dawn upon any of them at first that it was April 1st, but when it did there was a crest fallen looking crowd of people bound for home.

Big Potter County Trout.

Coudersport Journal: The largest trout caught in these waters was on exhibition here Saturday. It weighed 5½ pounds and was caught by Lyman Toombs in Mill creek, near Ladina. It had left the main stream during the high water and was caught in a pool when the water receded. It was a beauty and would have furnished rare sport for some one with a slender rig.

TROUBLE IN COAL FIELDS

Miners and Operators Cannot Agree on Strike Award.

NINE-HOUR DAY IN DISPUTE

Mine Owners Say Men Are to Get Old Ten-Hour Wages For Nine Hours and Overtime For Longer Hours. Men Themselves Are Divided.

Scranton, Pa., April 3.—Trouble has already been experienced as a result of the operators and miners not agreeing in their interpretation of the strike commission's award. The commission adjudged that the men should be paid "on the basis of a nine-hour day," without reduction of wages, and with a prorata increase for overtime. This the operators say does not decree a nine-hour day, but simply that they are to get the old 10 hours wages for nine hours work and overtime for each hour worked more than nine.

At some collieries, where the companies proceeded to work 10 hours as before, the men refused to work more than nine hours, and the collieries had to shut down. The men themselves are divided as to the right interpretation. At the Green Ridge Coal Company's colliery the adults wanted to continue working 10 hours, as that was the only way they would be getting an increase in wages, but the boys declared that a nine-hour day had been awarded, and they didn't propose to work more than nine hours, and they didn't.

At Providence, Carbondale, Olyphant, Plymouth and Wilkesbarre collieries of the Delaware and Hudson Company the men quit work at the end of nine hours work. All the other collieries of the company worked 10 hours. The Dickson colliery local has passed a resolution declaring that no more than nine hours should be worked.

The Enterprise Coal Company, of this city, received word that its drivers at the Shamokin colliery had struck because the company refused to start up at 6.30 o'clock instead of 7 o'clock. Hon. W. L. Connell, recorder of Scranton, who is president of the company, said he expected the miners to compel the drivers to return to work, as their action in striking is in direct violation of the conciliation board feature of the commission's award.

Mine Workers to Amend Constitution.

Hazleton, Pa., April 3.—The mine workers of the seventh district will hold a convention in this city the latter part of the month, probably the 21st, to amend their constitution to conform to the finding of the strike commission.

STRIKE AWARD AIDS UNIONS

New Men Are Joining Firemen's Organization Every Day.

Wilkesbarre, April 3.—The award of the strike commission has greatly strengthened the firemen's union and new men are joining every day. According to Secretary Mullahy, the firemen are all returning to their old union, the International Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen. For the remainder of this month open meetings will be held every night in all towns in the Wyoming Valley for those who wish to join.

The charter for the new Federal Labor union, which will be formally organized in this city on Saturday, has arrived here. All fair workers not affiliated with any other union are eligible to membership. Some 400 men are now awaiting to join this order in this city.

During the past week the Union Labor League has organized several lodges in Luzerne county. This league takes in principally housekeepers, and they are told the importance of asking for the union label on all goods purchased. This union has now over 1,000 members in this valley.

Brewery Strikers Firm.

Mahanoy City, N. J., April 33.—At a conference here between representatives of the Anthracite Brewers' Association and the striking employes, the latter refused absolutely to consider any proposition for ending the strike other than the unconditional signing by the Brewers' Association of the new wage scale for a 10 per cent. increase and other concessions. The session was a stormy one.

Retired Champion Pugilist Dead.

St. Louis, April 6.—Tom Allen, retired heavyweight champion pugilist of the world, who for the past 25 years has conducted a small saloon here, is dead from general debility. Allen won his laurels in the days of bare fist fighting, and bore the title of being the only pugilist who lost the world's championship, regained it and retired with it. He lost to Jem Mace, May 10, 1870, and regained the title by defeating Mike McCool, September 23, 1873.

Died From Chicken Scratch.

Lancaster, Pa., April 6.—While cooping some chickens several days ago, preparatory to moving, Charles Murray, aged 19 years, of Columbia, was slightly scratched by one of the hens. His arms began to swell, blood poisoning developed, and he died in terrible agony.

EVIDENCE IN POSTAL SCANDAL

Postmasters Tell How Their Offices Have Been Overstocked.

Washington, April 6.—Evidence of extravagance in the rural free delivery division of the postoffice department is on the increase. It is becoming apparent that all kinds of supplies have been purchased in enormous quantities, whether actually needed or not, and distributed over the country. Numbers of letters are being received by high officers of the department from postmasters that tell how offices have been overstocked with supplies not needed. This material was sent from Washington, and not requested by the postmasters.

Time clocks, books, typewriters, cash registers and similar articles have been furnished when the offices supplied were already equipped. Now that an inquiry into methods and administration is progressing many postmasters are willing to give evidence who previously maintained silence.

The plan of overstocking the postoffices was begun three or four years ago and has been continued until the present. The charge is made that excessive prices were paid for all the material purchased. The impression is that somebody must have profited by the transactions, but this must be developed by the investigation now being prosecuted by Fourth Assistant Postmaster Bristow, of the division of postoffice supplies.

If there have been recklessness and extravagance of the character indicated by postmasters in their letters it would be largely manifested through this division. There are also letters showing undue liberality in the establishment and maintenance of free delivery routes.

It is said great influence has been brought to bear upon the president to have the present investigation stopped. Mr. Heath, who was formerly first assistant postmaster general, came here and, it is said, remained six weeks exerting his influence to prevent disclosures.

CHANGED CONFEDERATE BILL

New York, April 6.—In the Tombs court Peter L. Wie, a sailor, charged Bartholomew Upton with grand larceny. Wie said he was walking along Catherine street, when he saw a man drop what he supposed was a $100 bill. Another man behind the first picked up the money, and Wie hurried to the man who had dropped it and told him. The supposed money was returned to the man who had lost it, and he said to Wie: "If I had the change I would give you $5 for your kindness."

Wie handed $95 to the man, who gave him the supposed $100 bill. Soon after he discovered it was a Confederate bill. Upton was held in $2,000 bail for trial.

STOVE POLISH EXPLODED

Stepmother and Daughter Fatally Burned In New York.

New York, April 6.—Jennie Gross, 16 years old, and her stepmother, Henrietta Gross, 32 years old, were possibly fatally burned at their home here by the explosion of a can of stove polish supposed to have contained benzine or some similar preparation. Fumes from the can of polish became ignited from a gas stove and the explosion followed. The blazing fluid was thrown over the girl, and in a moment her clothing was on fire from head to foot. Mrs. Gross was badly burned in trying to extinguish the flames. The two were saved from being burned to death by neighbors.

Transvaal Wants Chinamen.

New York, April 6. — H. Herbert Noyes and H. Ross Skinner, from Johannesburg, Transvaal, commissioners appointed by the British government to proceed to China for the purpose of investigating Chinese labor, with a view to its employment in the mines of the Transvaal, have arrived in New York. They are on their way to San Francisco, where they will inquire into the methods of working and value of Chinese labor as employed in California. Owing to the insufficiency of native labor in the Transvaal, the immigration of Asiatics under government control, which would provide for the indenturing and repatriation of the laborers, is favored by the authorities there.

Emperor William Leaves Denmark.

Copenhagen, April 6.—The German emperor concluded his visit to the Danish court and went on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern. A large crowd witnessed the emperor's departure. The Hohenzollern sailed for Kiel this morning. During his stay here Emperor William purchased a large silver statuette of a Danish sailor, saying that he should place it on board the Hohenzollern as a constant reminder to the German sailors of the nation he held in the warmest regard.

New Typewriting Record.

Washington, April 6.—The patent office claims a new typewriting record. In six hours Miss Mary E. Pretty wrote 17,500 words of complicated descriptions of inventions without a mistake. Miss Pretty came here two weeks ago from Philadelphia.

A HORSE IN BATTLE

HOW HE FEELS WHEN IN THE MIDST OF A FIERCE ONSLAUGHT.

A Writer of Horse Stories Describes the Experiences of an Arab Charger In the Ranks of Stuart's Cavalry—The Gallop to Battle.

Probably no one will ever know just how a horse feels when going into battle. There is no way of finding out. So it is likely that no one will dispute the correctness of the description which Sewell Ford gives in "Horses Nine," published by Scribners.

The horse in question is Pasha, a half blood Arab hunter that has been pressed into service in Stuart's Black Horse cavalry. The story runs:

Early the next morning Pasha was awakened by the distant growl of heavy guns. By daylight he was on the move, thousands of other horses with him. Nearer and nearer they rode to the place where the guns were growling. Sometimes they were on roads, sometimes they crossed fields, and again they plunged into the woods where the low branches struck one's eyes and scratched one's flanks. At last they broke clear of the trees to come suddenly upon such a scene as Pasha had never before witnessed.

Far across the open field he could see troop on troop of horses coming toward him. They seemed to be pouring over the crest of a low hill, as if driven onward by some unseen force behind. Instantly Pasha heard, rising from the throats of thousands of riders on either side and behind him, that fierce, wild yell which he had come to know meant the approach of trouble. High and shrill and menacing it rang as it was taken up and repeated by those in the rear. Next the bugles began to sound, and in quick obedience the horses formed in line just on the edge of the woods, a line which stretched and stretched on either flank until one could hardly see where it ended.

From the distant line came no answering cry, but Pasha could hear the bugles blowing, and he could see the fronts massing. Then came the order to charge at a gallop. This set Pasha to tugging eagerly at the bit, but for what reason he did not know. He knew only that he was part of a great and solid line of men and horses sweeping furiously across a field toward that other line which he had seen pouring over the hill crest.

He could scarcely see at all now. The thousands of hoofs had raised a cloud of dust that not only enveloped the on rushing line, but rolled before it. Nor could Pasha hear anything save the thunderous thud of many feet. Even the shrieking of the shells was drowned. But for the restraining bit Pasha would have leaped forward and cleared the line. Never had he been so stirred. The inherited memory of countless desert raids made by his Arab ancestors was doing its work. For what seemed a long time this continued, and then in the midst of the blind and frenzied race there loomed out of the thick air, as if it had appeared by magic, the opposing line.

Pasha caught a glimpse of something which seemed like a heaving wall of tossing heads and of foam whitened necks and shoulders. Here and there gleamed red, distended nostrils and straining eyes. Bending above was another wall—a wall of dusty blue coats, of grim faces and of dust powdered hats. Bristling above all was a threatening crest of waving blades.

What would happen when the lines met? Almost before the query was thought there came the answer. With an earth jarring crash they came together. The lines wavered back from the shock of impact, and then the whole struggle appeared to Pasha to center about him. Of course this was not so. But it was a fact that the most conspicuous figure in either line had been that of the cream white charger in the very center of the Black Horse regiment.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind. When W H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. CURIOSITIES OF SOUND.

Every Noise Has Its Corresponding Note on the Musical Scale.

In very high or mountainous regions sounds become diminished in loudness so that a conversation cannot be carried on in an ordinary tone of voice. In mines or in a diving bell the reverse of this is the case. Speech becomes so startling that it must be carried on in whispers to be at all endurable to the ear. Sounds of all kinds become musical if the vibrations of air are uniform and rapid enough. It is said that the puffs of an engine would make a tremendous organ peal of music if they could be made to attain the rapidity of fifty or sixty a second. Everything in nature has its keynote, as it were, and attuned to one particular musical sound. This fact can be very easily verified in everyday life. Stand near an open piano and speak in an ordinary tone. While speaking you will suddenly hear a string within reverberate to your voice. The tick of a watch, the sound of every human voice, the bark of a dog, the mew of a cat, the noise of a wagon, the roll of thunder, the fall of rain, the running of water—in fact, everything about us can easily be placed by an attentive ear on its proper musical note, one of the sounds of the scale. This is a most interesting experiment and easily verified.

It is said that the ear can distinguish eleven octaves of sound; but, as a rule, those made by quick, short vibrations are more easily conveyed. For instance, the whir of a locust makes a more distinct impression than the sighing of the wind through the trees. A whirlwind in its approach is noiseless. It is only when it strikes some obstacle that the volume of sound becomes terrific to us. Then we receive the secondary shorter waves from the destruction of this obstacle. Tyndall says all friction is rhythmic. Flames are notoriously sensitive to sound. They will bend and flicker and even respond with a leap of quivering light to a high, shrill sound. This is another interesting experiment. If we use a glass tube with a small jet of gas, by lowering or raising it to certain points we can cause it to shriek out shrilly or to answer sympathetically to its own keynote when sung or spoken by the voice.

If we could only hear the roll of the vast oceans in harmony all around us in our everyday life, we could say with truth, indeed, what the poet only imagined:

"There's not the smallest orb which thou beholdest but in its orbit like an angel sings, still quiring to the young eyed cherubim."—Baltimore American.

The Shepherd and His Flock.

A certain good bishop was in Italy for his health, and while walking in the country one day he met a small girl who was tending some pigs. The animals were giving her a great deal of trouble, and the good bishop offered to stay and watch the ones that were grunting and rooting in a ditch while the little shepherdess went to catch two runaways that had strayed from the fold. When she came back, the reverend gentleman stroked the unkempt curly head of the child and asked her how much she earned by her hard work and was told that she received 4 soldi a day.

"Do you know," said he, "that I, too, am a shepherd? But I earn much more than you."

"Ah, yes," answered the little peasant, "but, no doubt, you tend many more pigs than I do."

Curious Time Recorder.

A naturalist while visiting Great Sangir, one of those islands of the Indian ocean known as the Celebes, or Spice islands, found a curious time recorder lodged at the house of a rajah. Two bottles were firmly lashed together and fixed in a wooden frame. A quantity of black sand ran from one bottle into the other in just half an hour, and when the upper bottle was empty the frame was reversed. Twelve short sticks marked with notches from 1 to 12 were hung upon a string. A hook was placed between the stick bearing the number of notches corresponding to the hour last struck and the one to be struck next. The sentry announced the time by striking the hours on a large gong.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed to give satisfaction at Green's Pharmacy.

A Drop of 40 Degrees.

The weather man has been springing some decided surprises on humanity the past few days. Friday he treated us to a regular June day and brought the mercury up to beyond the 80 mark. Saturday it was down to 40 degrees, while snow flakes flit through the air and the stored away overcoat and jacket were hauled out of the recesses and put to good use again. Persons with weak lungs should carefully guard against such sudden changes in temperature.

EDITORIAL.

The new battleship Maine is said to be structurally weak and will have to undergo considerable strengthening to allow the use of her principal battery. But this is not the fault of the builders. They proceeded on the department designs The mistake, if such as represented, is rather a serious one for the Navy Department to make.

—Now look out for a howl because Teddy rode in a locomotive cab. There's scarcely a man of spirit in the world who hasn't wanted to do just that in his time, and none that we ever met who hasn't wanted to ride on the cowcatcher. But still if you keep your ear to the ground you will hear the howl just the same. "Pandering to the labor vote," and so forth and so on, merely because the man has more energy than even his great responsibilities can exhaust.

Senator J. P. Clark, of Arkansas, who succeeded Chairman Jones, of the Democratic National Committee in the Senate, appears to be in the class with Senator Tillman, of South Carolina. When he was sworn in at the extra session of the Senate Mr. Clark declined to accept Senator Berry, of the same State, as an escort, and walked alone, while each one of the other new Senators was accompanied by the other Senator from his State. Because Representative Brundige, of Arkansas, criticised this course on the part of Mr. Clark as a serious mistake, Mr. Clark undertook by the use of his fist to administer punishment to Mr. Brundige. A man who resorts to pugilism is out of his element in the senate, and when representatives of his own party are the objects of his wrath it makes the matter all the worse for him in a Southern State.

The wisdom of Congress in appropriating $25,000 for the use of Attorney General Knox in employing special counsel for cases growing out of second class mail abuses is beyond question. This has resulted in the employment of Mr. John G. Johnson, in this city, as special counsel. These cases will be carried to the Supreme Court probably, as millions of dollars are involved in them. Mr. Johson will give entire satisfaction in the matter. Heretofore the best lawyers in the country have been employed by interested persons contending against the Government, while the Attorney General has been confined to a small office staff. Congress has recognized the folly of that course and made provision for the employment of a special counsel in the trust and other cases.

REPUBLICAN GAINS IN THE WEST.

The elections Tuesday in Chicago and Monday in Ohio and in Michigan offer no comfort to the Democratic party. Mayor Harrison, instead of the large majorities he has had when he ran before for mayor of Chicago, now barely escapes defeat. Michigan went Republican without a sign of relief for the Democrats. Cincinnati, where Mr. Ingalls, president of the "Big Four" Railway, was the Democratic candidate for mayor, gave an enormous Republican majority.

Columbus was carried by the Republicans by 3000 majority, although the Democrats now hold the city government. "Tom" Johnson was re-elected mayor of Cleveland, but his campaign was made on 3 cent street car fares and other local issues. He simply holds his own. "Sam" Jones, running on an independent ticket, was re-elected mayor of Toledo, by 3000 plurality, a great reduction in his former vote. But the Republicans carried all of the remainder of their ticket, excepting a police judge, by majorities ranging from 1900 to 5400.

The result of the elections is cheering to the Republicans and depressing to the Democrats, particularly those who opposed Bryan in 1900.

Two or three Democratic bosses in this State have decided that the party State convention shall not meet until September. what a horrible thing to have a great party ordered around in that way!

Adjutant McIntyre Visits Bellefonte.

Adjutant McIntyre of the Salvation Army, arrived in town on Saturday evening. She was present at the childrens entertainment the same evening in the hall, and addressed the large audience.

On Sunday afternoon the adjutant had charge of the W. C. T. U. meeting in Petrikin Hall, at which were a large number who were there, knowing it would be a service full of interest, nor were they disappointed. After hearing the testimony of many who were present, Miss McIntyre delivered an earnest address on christian love, the duties one christian owes to another, and what they must do for those who are not of Christ.

Every word the Adjutant uttered was listened to with eager interest, and her earnest manner of presenting the truth made a wonderful impression on all present.

At night the Army Hall was crowded with a large audience to listen to her again and be strengthened in their faith by her words of love and encouragement.

Miss McIntyre is a great favorite in Bellefonte, owing to her beautiful, christian character, her kind and sympathetic disposition, her untiring efforts in promoting the cause of her Master, and her remarkable tact in conducting the special christian work in which she is engaged.

Services of Holy Week.

St. John's Reformed church, Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt pastor. The services of Holy Week, will be held as follows:

Good Friday—10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Preparatory Service—Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

Easter Day—Holy Communion at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Children's Easter Festival 2:30 p. m., at which time the sacrament of infant baptism will be administered.

Reception to Their Pastor.

Our Methodist brethren are preparing to give their new pastor, Rev. John A. Wood Jr., and his wife a hearty and sincere welcome on their arrival in Bellefonte from Tyrone this afternoon. Friends will meet them at the train and escort them to the parsonage on East Linn street. This evening at 8 o'clock a reception will be tendered them by the congregation in the lecture room of the church at which no doubt there will be a large turnout.

—The house of representatives passed the senate bill increasing the limit of cost of the new state capitol to $4,500,000, adding $1,500,000, which will be divided in the tax levies of a number of years. The building is expected to be ready for occupancy by the next session of the legislature, in 1905.

—Among the items allowed by the House appropriation committee is one of considerable amount to begin the construction of buildings which will give the State College an agricultural department equal, if not superior, to that of any other school in the country. It is proposed to provide eventually for buildings which will cost, including their equipment, $250,000, a considerable part of which will be allowed for the next two years.

—Some of the people of Altoona are keeping up the fight over the question as to whether the school children of that city shall or shall not be vaccinated, though the board of health and the school authorities have decided as to the course that will be pursued. It is their intention to take the necessary precautions to prevent the contagion from spreading through the medium of the schools.

—The Huntington News says a man named Hazzard, whose home is in Tough Creek Valley, visited Huntingdon Monday, having $25 with him to make some purchases at a sale on the fair ground. But unfortunately for him he fell into bad company, became intoxicated, was placed in the lock-up and when sober the next day he found that his money was gone. It was his first and last spree, so he says. There is no clue to his lost money.

—On Wednesday about fifty-five of the friends of Mrs. S. E. Hensyl met at her home in Howard and tendered her quite a surprise. A very pleasant evening was passed in social chat. A splendid lunch was served at 9:30. Some elegant music was part of the program. She was presented with a beautiful rocking chair. At on early hour all departed for their several homes feeling that it was good to be there.

—A farmer who knows what he is talking about hit the nail on the head when he said that "nothing pays better than good country roads." It, costs something to secure them, but they are the arteries which connect the cities and the country and through which safety and solid comfort perpetually flow. Bad roads, full of chuck holes, sloughs and bottomless mud, kill team and temper. Be sure that money thus intelligently expended is wisely invested, and sure to realize future satisfactory results.

—On Saturday evening last the probationers of the First Methodist church of Tyrone presented a handsome chair to their retiring pastor, Rev. John A. Wood Jr., who is about to leave for his new pastorate at Bellefonte. The presentation address was well made by W. L. Cohill and it was feelingly responded to by the recipient. Rev. Mr. Wood is held in especially high regard by the young people of his church, to whom he has ever been most helpful. This class of probationers was won to Christian life and endeavor through his ministry.

—Here is a chance for the lazy duffer to keep himself in line on the score of courtesy and politeness without exertion. It is the newest invention of a hat, which salutes ladies automatically. By means of clockwork the poorman who is to tired to raise his hat to a lady friend is able to escape any imputation of impoliteness. He has simply slightly to incline his head and the hat raises itself gracefully. On his head resuming the perpendicular, the hat goes back to its proper position. Of course the owner has to wind up the hat every night like a watch.

—Mrs. Katharine Zeigler Hicks, aged 50 years, wife of Rev. Owen Hicks, died at Montandon, Union county, Pa., on Tuesday afternoon, March 31, after a lingering illness of several years. Mrs. Hicks' maiden name was Zeigler, and she was married to Rev. Owen Hicks in Virginia in 1870, Mr. Hicks having then been a member of the Virginia conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. They removed to Pennsylvania in 1878 or thereabouts, Mr. Hicks becoming a member of the Central Pennsylvania conference. They had made their home for a number of years in Blair county, at Duncansville, and for the past four years have resided at Montandon, Union county.

—Three or four divorce cases are to be aired in the Centre county courts.

—The Commonwealth Hotel property in Harrisburg has been sold to the James McCormick estate for $230,000. After Jan., 1st, next when the lease of James Russ expires, the corner will be converted into a business block.

—A large number of Professors and students from State College will be in Bellefonte on Sunday to attend the Easter services at St. John Episcopal church. Prof. Espenshade has arranged to convey them down and back.

—Something went wrong Sunday with the motor which supplies the wind for the pipe organ in the Presbyterian church. As a result, the cabinet organ belonging to the Sunday School, was brought into use, reminding the members of the congregation of the days of "Auld Lang Syne."

—A printer in a nearby town asks for a proposal from the merchants of the town to furnish him a pair of socks, a bushel of potatoes and five yards of calico, contract to be awarded to lowest bidder. He says that is the way they do business with him when they want two dollars' worth of job work.

—The Pennsylvania railroad will hereafter do its own fire underwriting, as well as that of the various corporations controlled by it or affiliated with it. To that end an insurance company to be known as "The Mutual Fire, Marine and Inland Insurance Company," chartered in this state in December, 1902, was formally organized Tuesday at the Broad street station, —West Moshannon has been suffering from an epidemic of an eruptive disease which all the doctors but one pronounced chickenpox, and that one claimed it was a mild form of smallpox. A visit from the state board of health Thursday, we understand, supports the smallpox theory and a general quarantine is to be established on all roads leading through the infected place.—Philipsburg Ledger.

—The Brockerhoff House under the management of Horton S. Ray is fast assuming its place as one of the best and most sumptuously appointed hotels in Central Pennsylvania. Mr. Ray is constantly adding pictures, mirrors, etc., and repapering many of the rooms. The latest improvement is to the bar, a handsome new bar and fixtures having just been installed at great expense. Before Mr. Ray is through the hotel will be completely renovated in every particular.

Fortunate Bellefonte Individuals.

The International Electric Company have finally arrived at a satisfactory price and terms with the Electric Manufacturing Company, of Youngstown, Ohio, for the sale of their patent weighing device, and one or two other inventions of Edward McGarvey.

Mr. McGarvey informed us Monday morning that the transaction had been closed, and the price received was more then had been published in some of our local papers. He declined naming figures, but we can infer they have over $60,000 to divide among the stockholders.

The laboratory at this place is being dismantled, and the material shipped to Youngstown. Mr. McGarvey will leave for that point this week to superintend the construction of a plant to be erected by the Youngstown company. Ed. is to receive a handsome salary, and he is worth every cent they will give him.

There are some other patents the International Company still hold which are of great value.

One Sixth of a Century.

It was sixteen years ago Saturday, that Miss Nannie Stover enjered the store of Edwin F. Garman as sales-lady. For sixteen years she has discharged the duties of that position with fidelity to her employer, and by her obliging manner to the patrons of the store has won many friends who rely on her judgment, and have such confidence in her integrity that they never question any statement she makes concerning what she offers for sale. Her services are invaluable to Mr. Garman and we but echo the sentiments of many by wishing her all the pleasure and prosperity her faithful services merit.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Borough Fathers Held Their First Session for April Monday Night.

The Borough Fathers held their first meeting for April Monday evening. It was called to order at 7 30 with President Cunningham in the chair and the following members present: Messrs. Jenkins, Whittaker, Wise, Kirk, Derstine and Reynolds.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the clerk, Mr. Kelly, and there being no corrections they stood approved.

J. C. Meyer, Esq., on behalf of Richard Lutz, asked that water be extended to the borough line so that he could have the use of same at house which he has just purchased from the heirs of Harry Gehret on East Howard street. Mr. Lutz expects to erect a double house on lot adjoining where present house stands.

A communication from Borough Solicitor Fortney was read by W. Harrison Walker, advising council in regard to the manner of borrowing money for current expenses.

The Fitz Water Wheel Company are shipping a new pump for use in connection with water wheel at Water works which they guarantee will do the work.

Dr. Kirk, of the Nuisance committee, reported as a nuisance the bill-board on North Thomas street opposite P. R. R. freight station and recommended its removal.

The report of the Borough Treasurer showed the Borough account as follows:

Receipts	$245.80
Expenditures	208.00
Balance in treasury	$ 37.80

The Water account was as follows:

Receipts	$1,335.00
Expenditures	187.16
Balance on hand	$1,147.84

The request of Richard Lutz for water at his property on East Howard street was held over for investigation and report at next meeting.

The majority of the Street committee recommended an electric light at the intersection of Armor and Linn streets, near residence of Burgess Walker. It was left to Street committee with power to act.

Messrs. Kirk and Reynolds protested against the present condition of the streets and thought that for the amount of money expended on them they should not be so. Under this head Mr. Jenkins offered the following resolution:

"That the Street committee are hereby instructed to ascertain the cost of material and laying brick paving. Also, the durability and cost of maintaining the same, and, also, the advisability of laying brick paving on the streets in such parts of the borough as it may be suitable for. Also, to ascertain what the objections may be to the use of such pavement, consideration being given to local conditions."

This is a move in the direction of paving some of our main streets. The motion was adopted.

The Water Improvement committee was instructed to build a fence around the reservoir, as the condition of things there at present is very dangerous.

The Fire and Police committee were instructed to purchase a windlass and place it in the Undine Hose house, the cost not to exceed $10 to $12.

The request for the removal of the bill-board on North Thomas street was referred to the Nuisance committee with power to act.

Burgess Walker reported the collecting and turning over to the Borough treasurer the sum of $27.50 from fines and licenses. The amount was acknowledged and a vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Walker.

An order on the Interest fund for $1,662.50 was drawn in favor of the Borough treasurer, the Borough giving its note for payment of same.

The chairman of the Finance committee said that there were $12,000 due on taxes up to January 1, 1903, which could be collected at once.

Two bills for coal furnished the Water works by R. B. Taylor were not approved, the majority of the Finance committee not signing them. Colonel Reynolds objected to them on the ground that the price charged by Taylor was 35 cents a ton higher than the price charged by the Fuel & Supply Company. The Water Superintendent claimed that the Taylor coal had better steaming qualities and was the cheaper of the two according to a test he had made.

The following bills were approved and ordered paid:

Water Pay Roll	$177.76
Bfte Electric Co	2.05
Henry Lowry	12.34
P. P. R., freight	1.27

DEATH OF MISS LULU WALTERS.

She Was a Member of Graduating Class at Bellefonte High School.

A very sad death indeed, and one that will cast a shadow of gloom over a large circle of friends and acquaintances, was that of Miss Lulu Walters, a member of the graduating class at the Bellefonte High School, which occured at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Walters, two miles east of Milesburg Thursday morning at 5 o'clock.

Miss Walters had been ailing for the past two years but she still kept up her studies and was looking forward eagerly to the day of her graduation. Only last Monday she passed the final examination successfully. Monday night she was taken seriously ill and her death resulted as above stated. Her malady baffled the skill of the physicians and the exact cause of death could not be given.

She was born in Illinois, and was 18 years of age. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church. Surviving her are her parents, two brothers, John and Sidney, and a sister, Alice.

The corp of teachers at the High school and her class mates all speak in the highest terms of Miss Walters. She was a bright student, a lovable companion and her death is a great loss to family and friends.

The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Presbyterian church, Rev. Walter F. Carson officiating.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Guy Cox, Fred Weaver, Charles Thomas, John A. Dennis, Irwin Noll and George W. Breon.

Interment in the Advent cemetery.

Walked Half a Mile With Her Foot Crushed.

A story of the wonderful pluck of a little girl eight years old comes from Tiadaghton, Tioga county. May Weller is her name and she is the daughter of Geo. A. Weller, a millwright at the Wellsboro Lumber company's mill at Tiadaghton.

Early Saturday morning May and a ten-year-old girl companion started out into the Tiadaghton gorge for wild flowers. When about a quarter of a mile from home the children saw a Fall Brook freight train approaching. They scrambled up the mountain side, which at that place is very steep, but as the train was passing, May lost her footing and slid down under the train. Her right foot and ankle were terribly crushed.

The accident was unnoticed by the train crew, and the two children were soon left alone in the forest. May's companion wanted to run home for help, but the injured child was dismayed at the thought of being left alone in the woods and persuaded her companion not to leave her.

Then began the painful struggle to reach home, the injured child dragging herself along as best she could with the assistance of her girl friend. After home was reached Dr. W. E Delaney, of Slate Run, was called and found it necessary to amputate the leg between the knee and the ankle. Besides this injury she was badly bruised and much weakened by the shock. She stood the operation well, however, and it is thought she will recover.

The Remains Were Taken to Wilkinsburg.

The remains of the late Gregory Beck, who died at his home on East Bishop street, Sunday night, of Brights disease were taken Thursday morning to Wilkinsburg, Pa., for interment, where the family expect to make their future home.

Services were held at the house at 9 o'clock Thursday morning conducted by Dr. William Laurie, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The remains were then taken to the train escorted by members of the Masonic fraternity and by a large delegation from the Scale Works of which deceased was an employee.

The pall-bearers were Joseph L. Montgomery, James Church, John Knisely, Will Conley, W. C. Heinle and George Hazel.

Death of Mrs. Janet B. Dunsmore.

Mrs. Janet B. Dunsmore died at her home in Glen Richey Wednesday from a complication of diseases. She was about 65 years of age and there remains to mourn the loss of a loving mother the following children: W. M. Dunsmore, coal operator at Carrolltton; Mrs. Catharine Morris, of Covington township; Andrew B. Dunsmore, superintendent of the Bloomington mines at Philipsburg; James D. Dunsmore, mining engineer, of Tagura; Dr. Albert Dunsmore, of Philadelphia; Misses Jennie and Ellen at home.

Death of Mesrach Williams.

Mesrach Williams a well and favorably known citizen of Martha Furnace, died at his home in that place Thursday night at ten o'clock of Brights disease.

During the rebellion he gave his services to his country serving as a member of Co. A, 45th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers.

The funeral took place Sunday, April 5th at 1 o'clock.

—Baggage-master Emanuel Noll and his popular assistant Joseph Undercoffer are sporting brand, spick-span new [illegible] and are putting on many airs in consequence.

A TRIBUTE TO DR. SHRINER.

By the Bellefonte Ministerial Association.

A committee appointed by the Bellefonte Ministerial Association to draft resolutions of regret at the departure of Dr. Shriner from our midst have submitted the following:

Your committee appointed at the late meeting of this Ministerial Association, to prepare a minute having reference to the departure, from our midst of our beloved, the Rev. W. P. Shriner, D. D., the retiring pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Bellefonte, Pa. presents the following:

This Ministerial Association, moved by the purest christian fellowship and love, takes this method to place on record the high esteem and sincere regard in which the Rev. Dr. W. P. Shriner is held by all its members.

In all our relations with Dr. W. P. Shriner, we have found him to be a true "yoke-fellow" and helper in the gospel, a sincere and genial friend, an able and courageous preacher of "the word" and a most exemplary christian gentleman.

We sincerely regret our brother's departure from our midst, because we realize that we lose one whom we have learned greatly to love and respect, whose counsel has always been wise and good and his companionship profitable.

We mutually pray fervently that the divine blessing may rest upon him, and his dear family, richly, in the new field of labor to which our beloved brother has been called.

Your committee suggests that this action be spread upon the minutes of this association, and a copy given our papers for publication.

Also, that a transcript of this proceeding be made and presented to the Rev. W. P. Shriner, D. D.

Respectfully Submitted,
H. C. HOLLOWAY,
C. WM. LAURIE,
GEORGE ISRAEL BROWN.

Boyd A. Musser Leaves Bellefonte.

Boyd A. Musser, wife and child left last Saturday for York, Pa., which little city will henceforth be their home.

Bellefonte can ill afford to lose such men as Mr. Musser, and we regret his loss to this community. He is a live, progressive man, of fine business parts and of irreproachable character.

He has entered the employ of the York Bridge Works, a corporation doing a large and profitable business. His duties will be of a clerical character, for which he is so well adapted.

We wish him unbounded success in his new position and hope he and his family may enjoy their new environments.

A Dog Fight.

An exciting dog fight took place Tuesday about 1 o'clock on the corner of Bishop and Spring streets. A large bull dog, owned by a coal deliveryman, seized a small black coolie by the neck and commenced shaking it. The smaller dog showed fight but was forced on its back and in desperation got its teeth fixed in the other's jaw. This gave a new turn to the affair, and soon they were parted, both rather the worse for the battle.

A Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell, of Willowbank street, wish through the columns of the REPUBLICAN to extend their thanks to the many friends who so kindly rendered them assistance at the time of their recent bereavement in the loss of their little son, Harry.

A COMMUNICATION.

BELLEFONTE, April 4, 1903.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

With your permission we would like to ask through the columns of the DAILY NEWS, a question in relation to our Hospital. It has reached our ears that only one class or school of physicians have the privilege of sending patients to it unless they pay for private rooms, whereas this particular class have access to all the wards.

We have been led to believe that the Hospital was a PUBLIC INSTITUTION, that any citizen of Centre County would be received for treatment, without regard to race or religion.

It seems that if a person is so unfortunate as to believe in, and employ a Homeopathic physician, they will only be received, upon condition, that they pay the highest price for a room, the public wards are not open for them.

Why this should be, we do not understand, nor do we think it right, as many of our people have contributed largely to its support, who under present conditions can never expect to receive any benefit, unless they have plenty of money to pay the bill. CITIZEN.

[We publish the above, as it comes from one of our best citizens, and we have no doubt the Hospital management will enlighten "Citizen" on the subject.—EDITOR.]

Real Estate Transfers.

The following real estate transfers were recorded during the past week by Recorder Jno. C. Rowe:

28th ANNUAL MEETING

Of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society at Huntingdon.

The Twenty eighth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Huntingdon Presbytery held in Huntingdon March 25 and 26, opened Wednesday 2 p. m. with the hymn. "The Lord Omnipotent is King." Following this was a prayer service conducted by Mrs. A. B. Weaver of Clearfield, subj. "The Power of Prayer, Do we Realize it?"

A cordial welcome by Mrs. B. F. Africa was read by Mrs. J. R. Simpson who greatly regretted Mrs. Africa's inability to be present on account of sickness in her family.

It is needless to say that the response from Miss Lowrie was charming for it is well known that it couldn't be otherwise from Miss Lowrie. The annual letter of the corresponding Sec'y Miss C. W. Stewart was then read, because of Miss Stewart's happy faculty of seeing the bright side her letter is always greatly appreciated.

Miss Lowrie mentioned an illustration used by one of the speakers at the Chicago convention, telling of the wireless telegraph, he said to be successful it was necessary for the receiver and sender to be in tune. Miss Lowrie said the same was true of us and that we might receive the blessing meant for us wished us to pray that God would put our hearts in tune and she lead in an earnest prayer to that end. A solo "Go Forth and Tell", was sung by Mrs. B. F. Hatfield.

The report of the Sec'y of Literature told of an increase in the number of magazines taken, and called attention to helpful new leaflets and the missionary circulating library. Miss Hawes with her beaming face was then received by the members standing. The subj. of her talk was "China's Awakening". As the sun always shines with Miss Hawes she naturally protested against the pessmistic views of many who say there is danger of uprisings here and there, and that it is useless for the missionaries to attempt anything more. She said, "Don't look at it in that way, the work is God's and He will bless it."

After singing a hymn, the large audience was held almost spell-bound by the earnest and eloquent address of Mr. Robt. Speer, on the "Sad Songs of the Heathen". He said there was much to make them sad and nothing to make them glad. The narrowness of their lives, the absence of outside interests was sufficient cause for dull lives and gloomy songs.

Strip your life of every outside influence, newspapers, mail, friendly intercourse what would it be?

One woman had not been out of sight of her own home for many years, as the street on which she lived was a crooked one, a very short walk would have taken her that far from home, so imagine the narrowness of that life.

After Miss Lowrie had appointed a number of committees, a closing hymn was sung and the meeting adjourned until 7.30 Wednesday evening, when after the usual preliminaries Mr. Speer again addressed the meeting.

He contrasted man's condition here with that of man in heathen lands, saying that history is written as though there were only men, not a word is said of the women and children who make ⅔ of a population.

It is the women and children who suffer most in heathen lands and it is they who are most benefitted by Christians. A home that is a true home is unknown where Christ is unknown. These sad and suffering brothers and sisters, these sorrowing children cry aloud in their agony, for help and they are less than Christians, nay less than honest men who withhold that help.

After the collection for the contingent fund, a hymn and the benediction, the meeting adjourned until 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

THURSDAY 9 A. M.

Hymn "Jesus Calls Us." Minutes by Mrs. M. H. Wilson approved. Report of Treasurer Miss S. D. Morrow showed receipts for the year $4821,40 gain over last year including legacy from Miss Irvine, $500.00. Collection of Wednesday evening given to general fund. Her report having, $77.90. $100.00 of contingent fund. ing been accepted Miss Morrow offered the consecration prayer.

Mrs. M. H. Wilson then called the roll to which the delegates responded in concert with Miss C. W. Stewart's Bible reading used at Chicago.

After the report of the Secretary Mrs. Wilson had been read and accepted a hymn was sung and Mrs. Orbison offered prayer.

Miss Rachel Miller sang "O Jesus I have Promised" after which Dr. Bertha F. Caldwell medical missionary to India was introduced. Dr. Caldwell is an enthusiastic woman who is as anxious to bring sin sick souls to the Great Physician as she is to minister to the physical ailments of her patients. Upon her arrival at the hospital each morning she calls the Christian employes together for a prayer service.

Then a half hours religious service with the waiting patients and their attendants. In this way she had been able to present Christ's message to 5000 persons in a year.

Her fees which vary from 2c to $1000 are devoted to the support of the hospital.

The people appreciate what is done for them and try to show it by gifts of doubtful value such as withered vegetables addled eggs and on one occasion a sick chicken which died before she reached home, upon reproving the donor she was told that being a doctor it was thought she could restore it.

When the news of Pres. McKinley's death reached India, one man showed his sympathy for Dr. Caldwell in a very strange way. Noticing that he had a severe cold the Dr. asked the cause and was told that out of sympathy for her and respect for her country, he had stood for six hours up to his neck in the Ganges Dr. Caldwell closed her address with a fervent prayer. A symposium conducted by Mrs. F. B. Reed, was opened by a plea for class study with Lux Christi as a text book for Missions in India, by Miss Grace Burkett.

Miss Anna McCulloch followed with a description of Dr. Taylor's book "The Price of Africa," which was especially recommended to young people's societies.

Miss Roberta Barr presented the features of Mr. Speer's book "Presbyterian Foreign Missions," as this book treats of all mission fields it is better adapted to general use in missionary meetings. After announcements a closing hymn was sung and the meeting adjourned to the lecture room for lunch.

THURSDAY P. M.

Singing "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow". Service of Praise, "The Holy Spirit" led by Mrs. S. L. Storer, President of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of Huntingdon Presbytery. A missionary Round-Robin from the Woman's Board was read by Mrs. Wm. Thompson.

Young People's work in charge of Miss Fisher and Miss Speer. Miss Speer's report showed increased interest in many societies and gave the organization of several new bands among them the Margaret Wilson Band of Bellefonte. A round table conference of questions and answers conducted by Miss Fisher, brought out much helpful information in regard to bands of young people's societies.

After a hymn by the Young Ladies Foreign Missionary Society of Huntingdon. Dr. Caldwell gave an address on "Medical Mission Work in the Zenana."

Her prescription cards have on one side all the information concerning the patients case, on the other the plan of salvation.

It is worth all it costs to see the change wrought in heathen women's faces as they hear the story of the cross. A most pathetic story was told of eighteen little blind famine sufferers, hopelessly blind most of them having no eye balls, those of one child having been picked out by vultures, those of another had been eaten out by red ants and still another's having been destroyed by black ants. These poor little waifs had been brought from the famine district and cared for, but they were full of sympathy for their friends left behind and asked the Dr. if they were being helped, when she told them she had no money nor food to send them they were anxious to earn money for the sufferers. It seemed there was nothing they could do, yet they were unwilling to give up and said they would think about it until tomorrow.

They came to Dr. Caldwell the next day and said, "We will go without our food for one day so that it can be sent to our friends." "No, you can't do that, you are so weak and feeble it will be too hard for you to do without food." "O, that is why we want to do it, we want to give something we'll feel." Is that the way you give?

Reports from committees were then heard.

The committee on place of meeting reported invitations from Altoona First Presbyterian church and Philipsburg and recommended that the former be accepted for 1904 and a note made of the latter for 1905.

The committee on nominations reported the re-election of all officers with the addition of Mrs. Foster of Lewistown and Mrs. H. F. Smith of Altoona, to the list of vice-presidents, Also the promotion of four charter members, Mrs. Doris, Mrs. Orbison, Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. Rose to form an advisory committee and advised that they be relieved of district work.

The treasurer announced that the annual thank offering was $158.76.

After singing "Jesus Our Best Beloved Friend", Dr. Freeman dismissed the meeting with a few words of cheer and the benediction.

Tuesday Nights Band Concert.

Tuesday evening the Coleville band favored our citizens with their first open air concert of the season. Hundreds of people lined the streets to listen to the delightful music. We all remember with pleasure the treat this band afforded us by their concerts last summer and with what skill they played. Suffice it is to say that they have lost none of their skill in the musical line.

It is to be hoped that the band will receive the proper encouragement from our citizens in order that we may be favored with many more such concerts during the coming summer.

Eczema

How it reddens the skin, itches, oozes, dries and scales!

Some people call it tetter, milk crust or salt rheum.

The suffering from it is sometimes intense; local applications are resorted to—they mitigate, but cannot cure.

It proceeds from humors inherited or acquired and persists until these have been removed.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

positively removes them, has radically and permanently cured the worst cases, and is without an equal for all cutaneous eruptions.

HOOD'S PILLS are the best cathartic. Price 25 cents.

Rev. Dr. Wood.

Rev. John A. Wood, Jr., D. D., who served the First M. E. church of Tyrone as pastor the past three years, has been assigned to the church at Bellefonte. Mr. Wood is not only an earnest and faithful minister of the gospel, but is very practical in his pulpit deliverances; yet he is by nature kindly, and no matter how straight his arrow is aimed at a prevalent sin his words and manner of speech are softened with that kindly spirit that counts for good. The good wishes of the people of Tyrone, regardless of church affiliation, go with him and his most estimable wife to their new field of labor.—Tyrone Herald.

CHIEF BURGESS IN JAIL

Chambersburg, Pa., Locks Up Executive as a Forger.

HE WILL MAKE NO STATEMENT

Charged With Swindles and Peculations That Will Exceed $15,000. More Forgeries and Suspicious Transactions Coming to Light.

Chambersburg, Pa., April 6—Howard F. Noble, chief burgess of Chambersburg, chairman of the Democratic committee of Franklin county and attorney for Sheriff James McFerren, is in jail under 11 distinct charges of forgery and embezzlement in default of heavy bail. New accusations against him have been coming to light, and District Attorney Kyner says he fears his total peculations amount to between $15,000 and $20,000.

Noble was arrested on information by a client, Grub Vance, of Upton, Noble's native village, for the alleged forgery of a note for $1,000 in a Green Castle bank; one of $656 in a Waynesboro bank, and for assigning fraudulently a mortgage for $600.

C. B. Pentz, of Green Castle, made eight distinct prosecutions, covering $4,200, obtained by the assignment of a mortgage and the sale to Pentz of alleged forged transcripts of judgments.

Jacob Seigrist, of near town, charged the sale of a forged judgment transcript for $1,000; Blair S. Flemming, of Green Castle, complained of a $600 forged note to Mrs. Lauretta Frye, a widow, of this town.

In addition there are three or four alleged forgeries of notes and other fraudulent transactions which came to light, but upon which no action has yet been taken, and several other suspicious transactions are being investigated.

Noble is 30 years old and a widower. He comes from a fine family in Upton, this county, and his downfall has caused a great sensation. While acknowledging the Vance forgeries, he refused to make any statement.

The president of council, Samuel Monath, is acting as burgess.

JERSEY ORCHARDS RUINED

Cold Wave Nipped Small Fruits That Were In Blossom.

Camden, N. J., April 6.—The severe cold wave which swept out of the west and brought freezing temperatures worked costly havoc with the fruit and berry crops of New Jersey. Much of the fruit had progressed to blossoming, and the cold nipped peaches, plums, pears, strawberries and raspberries with terrible results.

Reports from Atlantic, Burlington, Cumberland, Salem, Gloucester, Hunterdon, Warren and Morris counties show that many orchards are practically ruined, while at other points the damage is almost beyond estimate.

Strawberries In Bad Shape.

Hammonton, N. J., April 6.—The temperature is down to freezing point. The indications are that all blossoms on peach, pear and plum trees will be killed. The early varieties of strawberries are fully half in bloom, and the ground is watersoaked from the heavy rains. There is no hope that the strawberries will escape.

President Pardons Labor Organizer.

Washington, April 2.—The president has commuted the sentence of Edward Guerrant, who was convicted before United States District Judge Henry C. McDowell, of the western district of Virginia, for contempt of court and sentenced, October 9, 1902, to imprisonment for eight months in the Washington county jail at Abington. Guerrant was a labor organizer of the United Mine Workers, and was adjudged by the court guilty of contempt in disobeying an order of the court by endeavoring to interfere with and intimidate employes in one of the coal mines. The attorney general recommended a commutation on the ground that the punishment of eight months' imprisonment was excessive.

Wife Shot In Struggle For Pistol.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 6—In a quarrel early this morning between Fred Barney and his wife, the latter was shot and instantly killed. Barney is 23 years of age. His wife is 18. He claims that she had a revolver in her hand and in the struggle to take it from her it shot her. Barney was placed under arrest. Both are well known.

Troops to Leave Cuba.

Havana, April 6.—It has been learned that four companies of artillery, comprising one-half of the United States artillery force remaining in Cuba, shortly will be ordered to return to the United States. These companies probably will be stationed at Portland, Maine.

TAKEN TO DANVILLE.

Former Williamsporter Becomes Insane While Working Near Snow Shoe.

Wednesday night George Fravel, overseer of the poor, and Constable James Russell, of Snow Shoe, came to Williamsport, bringing with them L. D. Watson, demented. Watson was a former resident of this city, and the probability is that he will be a Williamsport charge during his incarceration in the Danville insane hospital, to which place he was taken Thursday afternoon. When the Snow Shoe official arrived here they went to a hotel, but their charge became so noisy that they found in necessary to take him to the city hall, where he was locked up. During the night Watson removed his clothes and threw them out into the corridor. He is not a vicious patient, but he is unusually noisy. Watson worked in the woods and had an excellent reputation as a workman. Worry over the death of his wife and child have had something to do with his affliction.—Williamsport Sun.

The Academy Won.

The last of the series of basket ball games between the Bellefonte Academy and Bellefonte Athletic Club teams took place Wednesday night at the Armory.

A large number of friends of both clubs were present, as this game was to decide the championship, each club having won a game previously.

The playing was fine on both sides and every player exerted all his strength and skill in order to win. The Academy team was the victor by a score of 20 to 17.

The line-up was as follows:

B. A. C.		B. A.
Newbaker	Centre	McClafferty
Quigley.. Keichline	Forward	Lauder... McIntosh
Gephart.... Curtin.....	Guard	McCandless Thomas.....

Referee—Jackson, Bellefonte.

Umpire—Sharp, State College.

Killed in Elk County.

William Yeager, a son of the late Daniel Yeager, of Snow Shoe, was killed at Ramie's Mill near Empire, Elk county Monday morning.

He was employed on a lumber operation at that place and had started to work when a heavy rain turned him back towards home. On the way he climbed into the lumber train for a ride and when getting off near his home his heavy rubber coat became entangled in the wheels, drawing him into them, where he was crushed to death.

Deceased was about 50 years old and is survived by his widow and five children. He was a brother of Mrs. John Davis, of Coleville, and has several half brothers and sisters living about Snow Shoe.

The interment was made at Moshannon Thursday.

A Lock Haven Tragedy.

Officer Brendel of Lock Haven had an unpleasant experience and a close call in that city on Tuesday night. About midnight he noticed three suspicious characters evidently on mischief bent, he followed them for some time when one of them turned and fired, the officer immediately returned the fire, wounding the chap quite severely. The injured man was taken to the hospital where it was discovered two balls had taken effect, though painful he is not dangerously wounded. Officer Brendel deserves credit for his bravery. If more policemen would do a little more shooting there would be less lawlessness.

The Bellefonte Central Under Repair.

During the past two weeks the road bed of the Bellefonte Central has undergone many improvements. Three large section gangs are busily engaged in putting down new ties and straightening up the track. Several of the short curves are being removed and with the present rate of improvements Superintendent Thomas will soon have his road in a first class condition. He has lately purchased another large engine to increase the capacity of handling the immense amount of freight which is being hauled over the road.

New Insurance Agency.

TO THE PUBLIC:—

After April 1st, 1903, I will have my office on 2nd floor of the Bush Arcade building, Bellefonte, Pa., where I will be prepared to do a General Insurance Business. I will continue the business of Mr. John C. Miller and Mr. Boyd A. Musser.

The agency represents a good line of conservative and well managed old line Fire Insurance Companies, The United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, The Union Casualty and Surety Company and The New York Life Insurance Company, (the oldest and largest International Life Insurance Company in the world, supervised by 82 Governments.)

I would be pleased to have a social or business call from my friends and kindly solicit a share of the patronage of your business.

Very respectfully,

MITCHELL COMING EAST

Will Assist In Straightening Out Tangle Over Strike Award.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 6. — John Mitchell, national president of the United Mine Workers of America, will be in this city or Scranton during Easter week or shortly afterward to advise with the district officers of the three anthracite districts concerning the appointment of a conciliation committee to assist in straightening out the tangle that has arisen over the different interpretations of the award of the coal commission.

The district executive boards of the three anthracite districts held a meeting to take action on the commisson's award, and after discussing the matter decided to postpone action until the advice and guidance of the national president could be secured. District President Nicholls said that there are many matters awaiting the attention of Mr. Mitchell and that he expects the latter here some time during next week.

Mining Engineers' First Holiday.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 6.—The anthracite strike commission award with reference to the mining engineers went into effect yesterday. The new order gives the engineers a holiday on Sunday, which was observed throughout the region for the first time in the history of mining coal.

WILL KING EDWARD SEE POPE?

Forms Chief Topic of Discussion at the Vatican.

Rome, April 6.—The chief topic of discussion at the Vatican continues to be whether or not King Edward will see the Pope. The ceremonial proposed, that the king should start from the British embassy, is much opposed, not because he would be starting from the residence of an ambassador, accredited to the Quirinal, for the king once there, say the Vatican authorities, it ceases to be an embassy to become the house of the sovereign, but because Cardinal Rampolla must return the royal visit to the Pontiff, and he would arrive at the house when King Edward having left it had become again an embassy accredited to the king of Italy.

It is suggested that King Edward on leaving the Vatican should return to the British embassy, followed closely by Cardinal Rampolla, who would arrive while the king was still there. The objection against this course is that it would create a precedent. The nuncio at Lisbon has been charged to sound King Edward on the subject.

Bethlehem, Pa., Will Give Its Third Bach Festival This Month.

Bethlehem, Pa., April 6.—Following a first and a second Bach festival, the latter held in 1901, a third will be given here commencing on Monday, May 11, and continuing until Saturday, the 16th. The festival in 1901 was attended by eminent musicians from all parts of the country. The coming festival will appeal more strongly to professional musicians. The leadership will be in the hands of J. Fred Wolle, a resident of Bethlehem, and a pupil of Rheinberger.

The object in view is to portray the three great events of the life of Christ as outlined by Bach—His birth, His crucifixion and His resurrection, two days being devoted to each period. The evenings of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be devoted to the minor incidents leading up to the principal events. A boy choir of 100 voices will assist, while the Philadelphian Orchestra will render the greater part of the orchestral music. The soloists will be among the best oratorio and solo singers.

Fraud Charged In Cleveland Election.

Cleveland, April 6.—Burton Horn and Edwin Parkin were arrested at the instigation of the board of elections for alleged false registration in the city of Cleveland. The 20 detectives who have been working on the registration for the election today have reported that there are 1,600 cases where there may be fraudulent registration. Consequently there was a policeman within and without each booth in several of the wards where illegal registration is alleged to have been greatest.

Cardinal Gibbons In Pulpit.

Baltimore, April 6.—Cardinal Gibbons, who had been confined to his room with a severe cold for several days, was so much improved that he was physically able to deliver his usual sermon at the cathedral. His eminence's voice was not strong, but he was listened to by an audience that filled the edifice. His sermon was upon the value of ceremonials to religious worship. His physician thought it unwise for the prelate to leave the house after the delivery of his sermon.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

SURPRISED AT UNITED STATES

Increasing Our Asiatic Squadron Causes Comment at Pekin.

Pekin, April 6.—The report received here that the action of the United States in increasing her Asiatic squadron is on account of "the alarming reports on the situation in China," excites surprise at Pekin. Such reports were not sent by the United States or British legations, which possess good facilities for judging the situation in China.

The only disturbances considered serious are those in the Kwang-Si province, the southern province of China bordering on Tonkin, where 100,000 rebels are said to be under arms, which were never directed against foreigners. The latest reports regarding General Tung Fuh Siang, the "Boxer" leader, and Prince Tuan, the exiled anti-foreigner, who are at the head of the insurgent forces in the northwestern province of Kansu, are reassuring. It is believed that the government is supplying them with funds on condition that they remain quiet.

Due to Proper Division of Navy.

Washington, April 6.—It is said here that the change in the character of the Asiatic squadron is due primarily to what naval experts consider the proper division of our navy, and was decided some time ago. It is also felt to be a good precautionary measure to have a strong representation in the Far East ready for service should the occasion unexpectedly arise.

A WOMAN'S SUICIDE

New York, April 6.—Mrs. Louise Ames Van Weik killed herself in the Hotel Washington in Jersey City during the day. She was a blonde and good looking, and arrived in Jersey City from the west over the Pennsylvania Railroad and went to the Hotel Washington.

Mrs. Van Weik wore a dressing gown which was open at the throat. Apparently while sitting in front of the mirror she had placed a revolver against her breast over the heart and outside her undergarment and fired. Two registered parcel receipts also were found in the room. The registry took place at the Jersey City postoffice on Saturday. One parcel was sent to Campbell R. Royston, Baltimore, Md., and the other to Charles H. Townsend, New York City.

Although it was supposed Mrs. Van Weik had arrived direct from the west Friday, receipts from a New York department store showing purchases made on March 19 indicate that she was in this city on that date, and probably spent a few days here. It is possible that she merely came from Washington or Baltimore on Friday last.

GERMAN CROWN PRINCE'S BRIDE

Rumored That Frederick William Is to Be Betrothed to Duchess Cecile.

Copenhagen, April 6.—Rumors are current among the German emperor's suite and in Danish court circles that the German Crown Prince Frederick William is to be betrothed to Duchess Cecile, sister of the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, whose sister Alexandrine is the wife of Prince Christian, the grandson of the king of Denmark. Duchess Cecile was born at Schwerin on September 20, 1886. She will be 17 years old next birthday, while the German crown prince is four years her senior.

Ground Sank Beneath Him.

Shenandoah, Pa., April 6. — While playing with several companions near his home at William Penn, the ground suddenly gave way beneath the feet of 8-year-old Edward Shoppell and he dropped a distance of 25 feet into an abandoned mine working. He was rescued from the cave without having sustained any injury.

Hunters Trapped 175,000 Muskrats.

Wilmington, Del., April 6.—During the season just closing 175,000 muskrats were trapped along the streams between Delaware City and Leipsic and their hides were sold. Levy Court Commissioner Armstrong alone bought 113,000 of the hides and shipped them away.

PRESIDENT TAKES A REST

Mr. Roosevelt Attended Divine Services at Sioux Falls, S. D.

WESTERN PACE IS TOO GREAT

President Says Local Committees Must Have More Mercy On Him or He Will Be a Physical Wreck. Makes New Rule About Speaking.

Sioux Falls, S. D., April 6.—President Roosevelt was the guest of Sioux Falls until 10 o'clock this morning. His special train was met by a delegation headed by Mayor Burnside and State Senator Stites. Senator Kittridge also greeted him. The president was escorted to the Cataract House by detachments of the two local militia companies and enjoyed a day of comparative rest, the first he has had since his trip began.

He attended church, both in the morning and in the evening, and in the afternoon went for a horseback ride, accompanied by S. T. H. Bullock, superintendent of the Black Hills forest reserves.

The fact that President Roosevelt attended divine services twice was due to an error on the part of the local committee. The committee had the impression that the president was a member of the German Lutheran church, and accordingly they arranged to have him attend that church. When it was learned later that the president worshipped at the Dutch Reformed church, arrangements were made to have service in the evening at the Livingstone Reformed church here. While it is not the custom of the president to attend services on Sunday evening, he made an exception when the facts were made known to him. The services in the German Lutheran Church were conducted by Rev. Herman Seil, president of the German-English College at Welton, Ia., who came here for that purpose. The German language was used throughout the service.

Owing to the fact that both in Milwaukee and Minneapolis the length of the program did not permit the president to reach his car until after midnight, he has been obliged to announce that hereafter he will not begin speaking later than 8.20 in the evening and always will be back in his car by 10 o'clock. He will adhere strictly to this rule.

The president is showing signs that the pace set for him by local committees in various cities is too great. To date he has made 11 speeches, taken three carriage rides and held two receptions. He said that unless the local committees would have more mercy on him in the future he would become a physical wreck.

"No man on earth could stand this very long," he said. "I'll have to throw myself on the mercy of the committees through the press."

A pickpocket tried to work his game in the crowd gathered in front of the Lutheran church. Just as the president was about to enter the edifice, a man who gave the name of G. W. Earl, took $23 from the pocket of a resident of this city. He was caught in the act, but before he could be seized he had handed the money to a confederate, who disappeared. Earl was arrested.

Odd Salute For Roosevelt.

San Francisco, April 6.—In the Yosemite valley President Roosevelt will be given a salute by a battery of dynamite cartridges. The walls of the valley are 3,000 feet sheer, and the report of a toy pistol within them reverberates like a series of volleys by heavy artillery. The explosion of dynamite cartridges is expected to produce extraordinary results. An enormous bonfire will be built on the overhanging rock of Glacier Point. The great mass of fire will be thrown over the side of the projecting rocks to the bottom of the valley, 3,000 feet below.

THREATENED ROOSEVELT

B. P. Brown Locked Up at Redlands, Cal., For Precaution.

San Bernardino, Cal., April 6.—B. P. Brown, of Redlands, who was arrested just before the last visit of President McKinley, under instructions from Governor Gage, who learned that he had made threats against the president, is again in the county jail, having been taken into custody at Redlands on a similar charge, he having been overheard making threatening allusions to President Roosevelt.

It is stated that ever since the president announced his intention of visiting the west Brown has been closely watched, and he was arrested as a measure of precaution. He is charged with vagrancy.

A Suicide's Awful Death.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 6.—Louis Dotsmeir, aged 46 years, a consumptive from Buffalo, N. Y., committed suicide in a terrible manner. He poured three gallons of kerosene over his body and set fire to his clothing. He was burned to death in a few minutes.

DREADFUL ATTACK OF WHOOPING COUGH.

Mrs. Ellen Harlison, of 300 Park Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes as follows: "Our two children had a severe attack of whooping cough, one of them in the paroxysm of coughing would often faint and bleed at the nose. We tried everything we heard of without getting relief. We then called in our family doctor who prescribed Foley's Honey and Tar. With the very first dose they began to improve and we feel that it has saved their lives." Refuse substitutes. C. M. Parrish.

Clean Up.

Right now, in the glad springtime a mighty good season for the house-holder to let his thoughts turn to something besides the singing bird, the budding flowers and the patches of cerulean sky, These things are always pleasant and agreeable, and after a long and rather dreary winter the heart of men longs for them, but he can do better by his family and save doctor bills if he will get his nose and his eyes and hands down to earth and clean up about the premises.

There is nothing that breeds disease like dirt and dampness. Typhoid fever is invited by damp basements, unclean houses and surroundings, dirty yards and premises, and even soiled and cast off clothing left lying around where people come in contact with it. These things should be removed—the filth burned, the dampness drained off or absorbed. Drains should be opened up, sewer connections made tight, fresh burned lime generously used around the premises, and cellar walls whitewashed. There is nothing quite so good as lime for drying up moisture indoors or out, and it is a disinfectant besides. Moreover it is cheap. Better invest in it than spring tonics for "that tired feeling."

Rake up, scrape up, burn up. Then listen to the birds, whiff the scent of the flowers, and gaze at the sky.

Savings of Years Swept Away.

At noon Thursday, while the family of John Miller, two miles northwest of Carrol, were seated at the table partaking of the midday meal, they discovered that the entire second story of their home was in flames. The family were compelled to run from the building for their lives, so rapidly did the fire spread, and in addition to the destruction of the house, lost all their furniture and belongings with the exception of a few chairs.

Mr. Miller, who is an industrious man, has a family of eight children, and the loss to him is most severe, as he had no insurance on the house or furniture. It is thought that a defective flue caused the fire.

He Has Started a Bank Account.

David Wolf, the wellknown blacksmith at Clintondale, was in Lock Haven Friday bright and early awaiting the hour when the banks would be open and ready for business. Heretofore Mr. Wolf kept some of his savings in a desk in his blacksmith shop, and only came to the conclusion to change the place of deposit to the more secure banks after an expensive experience. Mr. Wolf had about $50 laid away in the desk, but it is not there now. Some thief, who undoubtedly was aware of its presence, broke into the shop the other night and took the entire amount.—L. H. Electricity for Pottsville Mines.

Half a million dollars will be spent by the big coal companies at Pottsville this summer in introducing electricity into the mines. The adaptability of electricity to coal mining having been thoroughly demonstrated, it will now be brought into general use. The Lehigh Valley Coal Company has already started work in equipping several of its collieries. Haulage systems are being introduced which will furnish not only power, but splendid illumination, which will penetrate the darkness of the mines with a flood of light. Electric drills and other electrical mining instruments are also being experimented with.

Widow Sues Borough of Ashland.

The preliminary steps were taken in Schuylkill county courts recently in the suit which Mrs. Elizabeth Burmeister has instituted against the borough of Ashland to recover $20,000 damages, because her husband died of the smallpox. It is alleged that he was forcibly removed from his home to the emergency hospital in Butler township, and that he died from neglect and lack of proper treatment. He died two years ago. The outcome of the suit will be awaited with much interest.

Farmers Going West.

A colony of 45 farmers from the Kishacoquillas and Big Valleys, Mifflin county, left Lewistown this week for North Dakota, where they will take up claims and enter agricultural pursuits. A greater portion of these were Amish people who have been tenants on the most fertile farms in Juniata valley. They have sold their effects and left, asserting they could no longer compete with the western farmer in crop raising. Several other colonies expect to leave in a short time.

A SWEET BREATH.

is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S. Crick, of White Plains, Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years—tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like. Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Parrish, a Drug Store.

EPIDEMIC OF TYPHOID FEVER.

About three or four weeks ago a daughter of Isaac Clevenstine, who resides about half a mile this side of Hublersburg, this county, took sick and died. The next of the household who became ill was Harry Clevenstine, a clerk in Joseph & Co.'s store in Bellefonte Then another brother was taken down with the same disease, the cause of which seemed to puzzle those who were acquainted with the circumstances

At present there is an epidemic of typhoid fever in the community there being eight or ten persons down with the terrible disease.

About ten days ago, while Harry Clevenstine was lying ill, Dr. P. S. Fisher, of Zion, was employed to give him medical aid. Before doing anything Dr. Fisher began to make investigations as to the cause of the disease, being convinced that it was typhoid fever.

His first investigation was the cistern where the family secures its drinking water. He found, after taking up the boards of the cistern, that the cement was terribly cracked and broken, and that water from the barnyard had evidently been running alongside of the cistern, some of which could not help but get into the water. Dr. Fisher at once gave the family notice not to drink the water, and especially not to give it to his patient, Harry Clevenstine. The result is that Harry got well, but the other members of the household who were ill are still very weak.

It is said that some of the members of the Clevenstine family were at first loath to believe that the disease came from the water in the cistern, but there is one fact that clearly demonstrates that such might be the case. The day Miss Clevenstine was buried all the pall bearers drank freely of the water, and the result is that all of them with the exception of one, are down with the disease, and some have it in a very serious form.

A Corning Man Coughs Up a Four Inch Lizard.

The danger of drinking heartily from unprotected springs was strikingly illustrated Tuesday night at Corning, says the Leader, when an illness from which Harry Lee had mysteriously suffered for two years and which has baffled several physicians, was explained when a four-inch lizard was forced out of his stomach by nauseation.

Harry Lee is an employe of the Erie freight house in Corning. He is a young man about 23 years old and up until three years ago followed the life of a farmer on the farm of C. W. Lee, his father, at Hornby. Soon after removing to Corning Mr. Lee began to experience curious sensations in his stomach and finally became so troubled that he went to physicians.

The symptoms were peculiar and puzzled the doctors not a little. He would be violently ill in the morning and unable to hold much food on his stomach. From a strong, husky farmer lad he dwindled into an emaciated and almost consumptive looking young man.

Nights he would be suddenly awakened with the sensation that something was crawling up into his throat. After Mr. Lee had been to several Corning doctors without receiving help, one told him that he was probably affected by a tape worm. He advised him to abstain from drinking water for a few days. This was about ten days ago. He was feeling so badly that nothing would stay on his stomach.

He ceased drinking liquids and Tuesday night was taken violently ill at the stomach when the animal, dead, was ejected. The lizard was of the common variety so often seen about the vicinity, and was over four inches long.

Mr. Lee has an idea that the animal got into his stomach through drinking from a spring on his father's farm. He remembers one warm day in particular, when exhausted from a hard day's work he lay down by the spring and drank deep draughts from the pool. This was over three years ago.

What does it profit a woman if she gain the whole world of knowledge and lose her own health? Young women students, and school teachers, eager, ambitious, and full of energy, very often neglect their health in the struggle to gain education. They eat insufficient food, and at irregular hours, they allow irregularity of the womanly functions to be established, and the result is that they become chronic invalids with all their education practically worthless. There is a plain road back to health for such as these, marked by the feet of thousands. It is the use of Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for diseases of the stomach and digestive and nutritive organs, and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for diseases of the delicate organs of womanhood. A cure so certainly follows the use of these remedies that out of hundreds of thousands who have tried the treatment, ninety-eight in every hundred have been perfectly and permanently cured. Constipation, with its calamitous consequences, which is a common ailment of students, can be entirely cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

All Fools' Day.

What was the origin of All Fools Day?

Authorities differ and no one can say positively. The beginning of the day is hid in the mist and dust of antiquity. The generally, although by no means unanimously accepted theory is that which assigns the origin of the custom to France. March 25 used to be the New Year's day. France took the lead in commencing the new year on January 1 instead of March 25. Before the change was made the festivities of the season culminated on the octave of the feast, April 1, when visits were paid and gifts bestowed.

With the adoption of the reformed calendar in 1564 New Year's day was carried back to January 1, and only pretended gifts and mock ceremonial visits were made on April 1, with the intention of making fools of those who had forgotten the change of date. The custom once started was kept up after its origin had been forgotten.

Some say that the English borrowed their April fooling from the French. But, whereas the English youngster and the American small boy exultingly cry out "April fool!" when they have perpetrated the joke, the French call the person imposed on an April fish or un Poisson d'Avril—this is an April fish, by implication an April fool—Poisson d'Avril, the familiar name of the mackerel, a fish easily caught by deception, singly and in shoals, at this season of the year.

The term April fool was, therefore, probably nothing more than an easy substitution of that opprobious epithet for fish. In Germany they have the phrase, "Einen zam April shicken."

One of the best April fish stories told, although, like a good many of such tales, it is of doubtful authenticity, relates how Francis, Duke of Lorraine, and his wife escaped from captivity one April 1st.

The story goes that they disguised themselves as peasants and started off boldly to pass the sentries. Some one, detecting their disguise, ran ahead and warned the guards. But the latter only laughed and shouted back all-knowingly, "Poisson d'Avril!"

Thus the pretended peasants made their escape.

A Postmaster Quits Business.

A peculiar condition of affairs exist at present at the United States postoffice at Muncy Station—or, rather where the postoffice once was at that point. In fact, the Muncy Stationites are now without a postoffice, the postmaster, Mr. Kift, who is the father of Mail Clerk P. S. Kift, of Lock Haven, having closed the office Wednesday.

Some time ago it will be remembered, Postmaster John Kift, who has held the office for a numbers of years, sent his resignation to the department, to take effect April 1. No action was taken by the department on the resignation, and Wednesday, April 1, Mr. Kift simply put up the shutters and quit. He refused to accept any more mail matter and patrons of the office will have to get their mail at the Muncy office until action is taken by the department.

Mr. Kift has no bondsmen, those who served in that capacity having died some years ago. And the office being such an insignificant one, new bondsmen were not asked for by the government. Hence the office is closed.

To Stamp Out Smallpox.

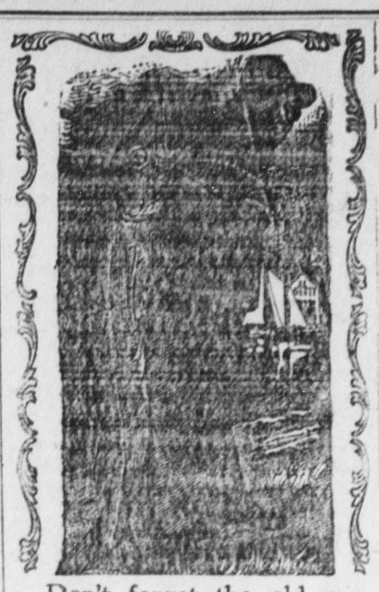
An act extending the powers of the state board of health, to enable it to meet the emergency occasioned by epidemics of smallpox in different sections of the state, was passed by the present session of the legislature and was approved by Governor Pennypacker March 25. The act gives the board fuller jurisdiction over local boards of health and prescribes a fine not exceeding $1,000 and an imprisonment not exceeding one year, either or both, for persons who shall be found guilty of violating quarantine regulations as adopted by either the state or local boards of health. Violators may be arrested by members of the board of health without a warrant. The sum of $50,000 is appropriated to be used in assisting the communities in which smallpox now exist or may hereafter exist in stamping out the disease. The act will continue in force for a period of two years.

A Remarkable Record.

On Tuesday, February 3rd, the New York Central handled a total of 25,982 cars. This exceeded by 500 the maximum number of cars ever moved in one day. This record, however, was again broken on Tuesday, February 10. For the twenty-four hours ending 11:59 p. m. on this date the New York Central moved 16,605 loaded cars and 9,480 empties, a total of 26,085, which is the largest number of cars ever handled in one day on this line.

On the same date the Lake Shore railway handled 10,915 loaded cars and 3,316 empties, a total movement of 14,231 cars; or a total on both lines of 40,314 cars. This exceeds all previous records in the handling of cars on these lines.

BANNER SALVE, the most healing salve in the world. C. M. Parrish



Don't forget the old man with the fish on his back.

For nearly thirty years he has been traveling around the world, and is still traveling, bringing health and comfort wherever he goes.

To the consumptive he brings the strength and flesh he so much needs.

To all weak and sickly children he gives rich and strengthening food.

To thin and pale persons he gives new firm flesh and rich red blood.

Children who first saw the old man with the fish are now grown up and have children of their own.

He stands for Scott's Emulsion of pure cod liver oil—a delightful food and a natural tonic for children, for old folks and for all who need flesh and strength.

JOHN C. MILLER.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

—The happiness that comes out of a quart bottle may develop into a hogshead of misery the next morning.

—Some men stint their wives in order that they may keep up their club dues, and then wonder why marriage is a failure.

—A noon prayer meeting established by the late D. L. Moody, when president of Y. M. C. A., of Chicago, has not omitted its daily services for over forty years.

—President Eliot, of Harvard, although three-score and nine years old, and Mrs. Eliot can be seen on almost any clear day riding about the streets of Cambridge on bicycles.

—A partial eclipse of the moon will occur on the evening of April 11, and will be visible in the Eastern United States. The moon will rise with the eclipse on and continue until 8:52 p. m.

—We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Simeon Haupt, who at this writing is in a critical condition. Her husband has also been quite sick with grip, but are glad to state he is gradually recovering.

—The appropriation of $5000, for the Bellefonte Hospital has passed both branches of the Legislature and all that remains to make this fund available is the approval of the Governor, and there is little fear of his changing the amount.

—Milton Kerns, who for some time past has been the main standby, at Frank Sasserman's barber shop, has resigned that position and left on Tuesday for his home at Millheim where he expects to go into the poultry raising business.

—The electrical roads of the country have a nominal capital of $1,600,000,000 employ 300,000 persons who are paid $250,000,000 a year, and run 60,000 cars over 20,000 miles of track. Ten miles of electrical road are building to one of steam road.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Morrison, of Unionville, have sent out cards announcing the approaching marriage of their daughter, Anno, to Mr. Charles Stover, of Altoona. The happy event will take place at high noon Wednesday, April 15 at the Morrison home in Unionville.

—The retail grocers of Clearfield have recently formed an Association for mutual protection and better trade conditions. Those who neglect or refuse to pay their grocery bills will find a harder road to travel, as this is a part of the State Association with branches all over the state.

—The Presbyterian Sunday school of Tyrone celebrated its thirty-seventh anniversary last Sunday. Special services were held suitable to the occasion. Considering the age of the school it presents a flattering report. It has 20 officers, 46 teachers and 489 scholars. The class collections during the year amounted to $517.

—Professor Woodward has gone over the calculations of Laplace by the aid of modern data, and concludes that though in theory the length of the day on earth must be increasing, owing to the increasing mass of the planet due to the constant deposit of meteors, etc., yet the change is so infinitesimal that there has not been a half second of difference in 10,000,000 years.

—As a result of Superintendent Magowan, of the Warren schools, allowing a pupil to attend school without having complied with the law requiring all pupils to be vaccinated, he was fined $5.00 and costs. The case will be appealed and fought to a finish. The outcome will be watched with keen interest by school boards throughout the state.

—Harvey Confer and Ambrose Gentzel, while driving from Spring Mills to Millheim one evening recently, met with quite an accident. On this side of the toll-gate one of the traces broke and the horse gave a sudden start, upset the buggy, throwing both gentlemen out. Mr. Confer was considerably hurt about the head and face, while Mr. Gentzel sustained little or no injury. The buggy was more or less damaged.

—Mrs. Frank McFarlane, of Boalsburg had a pocket-book containing quite a large sum of money, taken from her while in the lady's waiting room of the P. R. R. station Thursday. The loss was report to Detective J. W. Rightnour who made an investigation and claims to know who has the missing article. If it is returned at once to Mr. Rightnour, no question will be asked, otherwise the party having it will be prosecuted.

—Messrs Sheffer & Son have arranged an artistic window in their Grocery Store. It represents a waterfall which in its descent turns a wheel and then falls into an artificial lake in which are a number of live fish, the stream above the falls is crossed by a rustic bridge over which horses and wagons pass. The whole effect is unique and attracts a great deal of attention. The design and workmanship is by Paul Sheffer junior member of the firm who is certainly a landscape artist.

—An incubator in use in Australia has a capacity of 11,440 ducks' eggs or or 14,080 hens' eggs.

—A new process for extracting oil from olives by a centrifugal machine, such as is used in sugar refineries, will effect an enormous saving to the olive growers of California.

—A tramp rang a doctor's door-bell in a neighboring town and asked the pretty woman who opened the door if she would be so kind as to ask the doctor if he had a pair of old pants he would give him. "I'm the doctor," said the smiling woman, and the tramp left quickly.

—Miss Catharine Derstine (better known as Miss "Cassy") who is everybody's friend, and the friend of everybody, was suddenly stricken with paralysis Thursday evening while walking down town. She was immediately conveyed to the hospital and passed a comfortable night. We understand, upon inquiry that it is but a slight attack and she can soon be removed to her home.

—Harris Cook, son of Chas. F. Cook, is seriously ill with pneumonia at Altoona, where he has been in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad company. Mr. C. returned from that place Friday morning and reports that Harris is gradually improving and strong hopes are entertained of his recovery. Miss Annie, his sister, is with him and will remain until he has recovered sufficiently to be around.

—The remnant of a strange tribe of Eskimos has been discovered on Southampton Island, at the north of Hudson Bay. These people had never seen a white man until recently. Their huts are built of great jaws of whales, covered with skins. In the middle is an elevation, on which is a stone lamp used for lighting, heating, cooking, melting snow and drying clothes. The tribe is almost extinct, only some sixteen being left.

—The new English licensing act empowers the magistrates to reduce the number of licenses in districts they deem to be oversupplied. In most districts the saloon organization determines which members shall retire, and the others join in compensating them for so doing. The license holders of Birmingham offered to surrender fifty licenses before February, 1904, provided it would not cost their society over $250,000. The justice accepted the offer.

—On account of the thieving propensities of the "pale face" the Indians have abandoned their old burial custom of depositing valuables belonging to the deceased with the corpse. The Breeze, of Bliss, Indian Territory, is authority for the statement that the Indians now place money in the bank and put the certificate of deposit in the coffin for the dead Indian to take along to the Happy Hunting Grounds, as they have found this to be a much safer method.

—The Scandinavian bridegroom presents to his betrothed a prayer book and many other gifts, which usually includes a goose. She, in turn, gives, especially in Sweden, a shirt, and this he invariably wears on his wedding day. Afterward he puts it away, and under no circumstances will he wear it again while alive. But he wears it in his grave, and there are Swedes who earnestly believe not only in the resurrection of the body, but in the veritable resurrection of the betrothal shirts of such husbands.

—Herr Pohl, president of the German society for the protection of cats, has just published the results of his investigation in regard to the age which it is possible for these animals to attain. Cats, he says, are like human beings in one respect. The more peaceful and better regulated their life is, the longer they are likely to live. As a proof, he points out that a favorite cat in the royal castle of Nymphenburg has lived to be forty-two years old, and consequently may fairly claim to be considered the dean of cats in Germany.

—The Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Centre county, held its first meeting, since changing its location, at the office of Col. W. F. Reynolds, Bellefonte, Pa., last week. All the directors were present. The insurance written since the annual meeting in January last amounts to $98,289, premium notes $8104,86 and cash premiums $405,22. The company had no losses to adjust and had a number of parole requests for membership, which will be acted on when written applications are presented at the next meeting of the board.

—Joseph Brown, a brakeman, was killed in the Altoona yard Friday. He started to dinner and, as was his custom, boarded a "pull up" at Twelfth street. He lived at Fifthteenth avenue and Twenty-fourth street. At Twenty-fourth street he got down on the engine step and swung off. Behind him on the next track, going faster and faster every minute, was No. 11. He did not see the engine of the mail train until it struck him. He was knocked down by the locomotive and was struck on the left side of the head, near the back, causing a fracture of the skull. In the fall his leg was caught under the wheels and ground off between the ankle and knee. He died almost instantly.

—It sometimes happens that he who hesitates is found out.

—Mr. Isaac Underwood is having his handsome residence on Spring Street painted which will be a great improvement to that part of town.

—J. Howard Lingle had his flowing locks shorn by the barber a little too early in the season. Result—he has it in the neck and talks in the same tone as a fog horn.

—Col. E. R. Chambers has purchased the large law library of the late William E. Gray and has had it removed to his office across from the Court house.

—Last week E. Boehner, a tailor in Lewistown received an unsigned letter from Philadelphia, enclosing a check for $31,75, stating that the writer had purchased a "Prince Albert" suit from him twenty years ago which he had not paid for and inclosed the amount.

—The contract has been awarded the Keystone Telephone Co. of Philadelphia to install a complete telephone system at the Standard Steel works, connecting all the departments with an exchange to be placed in the central office. This will facilitate communications between the different departments.

—The Clearfield Spirit says, that the boys of the Fifth Regiment band have decided not to re-enlist in the National Guard. Their time is up in April and they will be known henceforth as the Clearfield band.—Now is time for our renowned Coleville band to put in their application for the place. Our band can fill the bill to perfection.

—Suit for $25,000 damages has been filed against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company by Houser & McKee, attorneys for Charles C. Kline, surviving husband Hattie Blanche Kline, who was killed February 2 at a public road crossing near Lewistown Junction by being run down by a draft of steel cars while crossing the tracks at Thompson's transfer,

—Edward T. Storm, of Tyrone, a freight brakeman on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad, on Wednesday night, in the vicinity of Snow Shoe Intersection, while in the act of twisting a brake wheel was so unfortunate as to break a bone in his right arm between the wrist and elbow. He was taken to Tyrone, where Dr. J. M. Gemmill reduced the fracture.

—The skeleton of what is supposed to be a victim of the great Johnstown flood in 1889 was found by some boys fishing along the banks of the Conemaugh river near Seward, on Tuesday. In accordance with the usual procedure in such cases the remains were buried by the Memorial Hospital association in the unknown plot in the Grandview cemetery, at Johnstown.

—F. Potts Green is having his drug store treated to a fresh coat of pure white paint, which makes it shine. In addition to painting, he has changed his counters in order to make more room for his soda water business. There will be tables and chairs for the accommodation of his customers, so that those who partake of the delicious beverage, can do so with the utmost comfort.

—Paul P. Deutsch, a Vienna newspaped man, is on a four years' tramp through Europe which may or may not be worth a purse of 40,000 florins to him. That depends on whether he completes it by May 1, 1904. He is a linguist, speaking six languages. He nearly starved to death in the barren foothills of the Ural mountains, many Roumanian peasants refused to sell food to him, and one of them tried, unsuccessfully, to shoot him.

—Alexander F. Chamberlain has discovered that there are 131 words of Algonquin derivation in English language. The Algonquins occupied a considerable section of this country before they were asked to move on, and some of the verbal heirloom they left are: Chipmunk, hickory, hominy, menhaden, moose, mugwump, musquash, pemmican, persimmon, papoose, pone, porgy, 'possum, powwow, raccoon, samp, skunk, squash, succotash, Tammany, tautog, terrapin, toboggan, tomahawk, totem, wigwam, woodchuck.

—Although Col. Reynolds and Dr. Kirk belong to the minority party of Council, they gave that body to understand on Monday night, that they are taking an active interest in the affairs of the borough. Col. Reynolds refused to approve the coal bills presented, and as he holds the key to the situation, it is probable the tax payers will be benefitted. Dr. Kirk succeeded in having the unsightly bill board on Thomas Street condemned, and it will now be removed. Keep on gentlemen, this paper will stand by you in every reform inaugurated.

—We are something of a liar ourself, but we have to go away back and sit down when we hear some of the yarns that are told in all seriousness. A few evening ago a gentleman who will never again see the sunny side of sixty said that a widow woman (just think of it, laying this yarn on a poor widow woman!) while calling at his house said that she had a hen that came into the house every day and got up on the bed and laid an egg and the other day the hen came in as usual and laid an egg and went out and then came right back and got up on the bed and laid six more. Now with all respect to our venerable friend we believe he has got mixed on his dates. That beats any fish story we have ever heard.

A Pleasant Evening Gathering.

The pretty and hospitable home of Frank C. Williams of East High street, superintendent of the Bellefonte Electric Company, was the scene of a very pleasant social gathering Wednesday evening. It was a party given in honor of the Misses May and Clare Coffman, of Altoona, sisters of Mrs. Williams, who are being entertained at the Williams home.

About twenty five guests were present and the evening passed very enjoyably. Games and other amusements including dancing, were indulged in and later in the evening choice refreshments, which included all the delicacies of the season were served.

The hours passed very rapidly and when the time for departure came all expressed their pleasure to Mr. and Mrs. Williams for their unbounded hospitality so generously extended.

Fire at the Scale Works.

Friday evening at 8.30 o'clock fire broke out on the roof of the blacksmith shop at the Standard Scale and Supply Works, south of town. The alarm of fire was sounded and both the Logan and Undine fire companies responded promptly and were soon on the scene. The fire spread in the direction of the machine shop. The efforts of the fire laddies soon put an end to the flames.

A patch about forty feet square was burned in the roof of the blacksmith shop and several belts were burned. The loss is estimated at about $200,00 fully covered by insurance.

—Robt. Burns. (Not old Bobby) but the handsome and agreeable Editor of the State College Times called on us Tuesday. We found him to be a most pleasant man, and notwithstanding he has been trying to eat us up, is not nearly so dangerous as one might imagine, after reading some of his fiery articles.

—Half the ills that man is heir to come from indigestion. Burdock Blood Bitters strengthens and tones the stomach, makes indigestion impossible.
